From the President–Marjie Siekerka

Happy New Year's Ladies!

The holidays are over and now it is time to make "someday" today and this year "someday". If you have been thinking about getting involved ...it's time! It is up to us to make sure the candidates we helped become our representatives live up to their promises. They affect our lives whether they are local, state or federal. We need to be involved with the representatives offices, stay appraised on the issues and educate family and friends in a nice non-threatening way.

A good start is to come to a general meeting at the Brigantine or an evening meeting downtown. These meetings not only let you meet like-minded women, get educated on the issues, they also let you ask questions to our speakers if you would like! We have legislation reports from State Senator Joel Anderson's office and U.S. Representative Duncan Hunter's office. This past year we had speakers on: the Free Market, Constitutional conservatism, common sense American Immigration Reform, Citizen's Alliance for Property Rights, Benghazi, Syria and "Experiencing Islam", the Arab-Israeli conflict, etc. Speaking to us we also had talk-radio hosts, candidates, local Republican leaders and the list goes on and on!

Navajo Canyon is starting this year with John Coleman speaking on "Global Warming!" This should be a very interesting meeting! In January we also go through the Navajo Canyon by-laws which gives everyone an idea on what we are all about. Our downtown meeting for January is the third Thursday of the month, Jan. 15th.

NAVAJO CANYON NEWS

This meeting occurs every other month and has two San Diego City Councilmen scheduled for January — Scott Sherman and Chris Cate. Please see article by Diane Randolph.

Looking forward to seeing you and starting off the new year with a great group of women!

Ways and Means

Sally Steele

I became a member of Navajo Canyon RWF 2 years ago, and I'm here to tell you that my experience has been excellent and surpassed expectations! This group consists of fun-loving, hard-working, passionate and caring women who are dedicated to making our community, state, and country a better place to live.

We have a diverse group of ladies who have spent countless hours through the years volunteering, attending meetings/luncheons, fund-raising activities....and developing relationships. I'm in awe of you Navajo Canyon women!

With that said, it is my pleasure to fill the role as 3rd VP Ways and Means and support this group to the best of my ability. Diane Randolph did an outstanding job in this position, and I will have big shoes to fill! I want to build on her successes and introduce some enhanced social activities for us to get to know each other better.

As the Board fills this year's calendar, we need your feedback on level of interest of suggested activities. We will provide you with a survey form via email and at our Luncheon Meeting on Jan 13. Your input is invaluable and I thank you in advance for helping shape the year!

Thanks to Ginny Wisley for hosting....you are awesome!

To the board & members of NCRWF,

Rick & I so appreciated the card & monetary gift that you bestowed on us for Christmas. The gift went to purchase the Ox & Camel pieces for our new Nativity that we got during our trip to Ireland.

We really enjoy having you all at the house for the Christmas party & as long as you folks enjoy coming here, the door is open.

Thank you again & wishing you all wonderful blessings during 2015,

Rick & Ginny Wisley

MEETS THE THIRD THURSDAY OF THE MONTH

Founder's Quote

"The people can never willfully betray their own interests: But they may possibly be betrayed by the representatives of the people; and the danger will be evidently greater where the whole legislative trust is lodged in the hands of one body of men, than where the concurrence of separate and dissimilar bodies is required in every pub-lic act." –James Madison, Feder-alist No. 63, 1788 rograms

Cathie Johns

The holidays are over, and as we begin the new year, it would be wonderful to have your suggestions on topics and speakers for our monthly meetings. In 2016 we will be focusing on candidates, so this year we can be innovative, and concentrate on subjects in which you have an interest or people you would like to meet. Please do not hesitate to contact me at cathie johns@hotmail.com, with your ideas. The forecast for our speaker for January's meeting: entertaining, irreverent and controversial. A legend in the industry, John Coleman has a long history in television, and is known for doing it "his way" both in broadcasting and his retirement, notifying KUSI while on vacation that he would not be returning. He is an opponent of global warming, calling it "a threat to our economy and our civilization." We will miss his dancing to "I Feel Good", and of course, his infamous, "KUUUUUSI!" February 10: San Diego County Supervisor, Dianne Jacob. In her sixth term, she concentrates on every problem that concerns her constituents, from keeping communities safe to making government more accountable to taxpayers.

Why Youth Voting Matters

Voting is habit-forming: when young people learn the voting process and vote they are more likely to do so when they are older. If individuals have been motivated to get to the polls once, they are more likely to return. So, getting young people to vote early could be key to raising a new generation of voters.

What Affects Youth Voting

Contact! Young people who are contacted by an organization or a campaign are more likely to vote. Additionally, those who discuss an election are more likely to vote in it.

Having information about how, when and where to vote can help young people be and feel prepared to vote as well as reduce any level of intimidation they may feel.

God Bless America

Chaplain's Words of Inspiration — Ginny Wisley

January: a new year, a new start; resolutions to make & keep (for longer than a week or two?). Now is the time to correct past errors; find new friends in different places; maintain & enhance old friendships.

Some of you that know me well know that a special source of crazy but spiritually based inspirations come from a wonderful, wacky woman named Suzy Toronto. I live by her "Life is all about how you handle plan B" mantra.

In one of her books, she described what I consider the perfect description of January & it's time of renewal for our individual lives, our Club's life, our communities, our country & our world:

...This is the year & now is the moment. Rekindle your passion, & multiply your talents. Embrace your inner wackiness, & redefine your world. Stand up for something worth fighting for, & confront the dragons of the world... Especially if they scare you. Make a difference in someone's life, & in the process, you'll change your own. Don't wait for ``a better time." It's your life & your story.  Happy New Year – may it be filled with many of God's blessings! Ginny Wisley

(p.s.: as I mentioned at the meeting, feel free to contact me with any "Chaplain-y" type needs: prayers, a listening ear, etc., that is part of this job)

NAVAJO CANYON NEWS

"POPCORN" POLITICS"

Construction will officially get underway Tuesday, Jan 6 on the first 29-mile segment of the $68-billion California bullet train project.

Governor Jerry Brown issued pardons to 105 people who committed crimes in California, including 11 who were convicted of mostly drug or theft offenses in San Diego County, the governor's office announced Wednesday.

Lines formed Friday at state Department of Motor Vehicles offices around San Diego County, the first day that undocumented immigrants can apply for drivers licenses. With the beginning of the new year, California became the 10th state to offer such licenses to people who cannot establish legal U.S. residency.

California birth certificates will now have a third option after mother and father - parent. The third option allow same-sex couples identify themselves with the gender-neutral option of parent. California's laws already allow for more than two parents.

Another law will allow for transgender person to die as they lived. Coroners will now be required to list the preferred gender rather than the anatomical sex on death certificates.

People who have been arrested no longer have to worry about their mug shots being held hostage by shady websites. California made it illegal for websites to charge people money to have their embarrassing photos removed.

Most of the people who were arrested were never charged with a crime. Web sites could face up to $1,000 fine for each violation. ****

Health insurance companies will no longer be allowed to require a waiting period before issuing insurance to new employees of small businesses. Historically, insurance companies require a waiting period to weed out people who have been denied insurance because of pre-existing conditions.

Under the Affordable Care Act, insurers can no longer deny people insurance based on pre-existing health conditions so the financial reason for a waiting period is obsolete. Employers, however, can still impose a waiting period for new hires.

As 2014 comes to an end, so may the downward trend of gas prices. A new gas tax is about to take effect at the start of the New Year and it could add a significant amount at the pump.

"California has second highest gasoline tax in the nation now, before this new tax kicks in," said Richard Rider of San Diego Tax Fighters. "We'll be No. 1 easily when new tax kicks in." Beginning Jan. 1, what some call a 'hidden tax' will take effect. The new tax could increase the price per gallon by 75 cents, some estimate.

California's New Laws for 2015: How Are You Affected?

California lawmakers passed over 900 new laws that will go into effect in 2015. Here's a look at the ones that'll bring some of the biggest changes:

Immigrants' Driver's Licenses (AB 60) -- The DMV must issue driver's licenses to undocumented immigrants who meet every other qualification, like passing driving tests. About 1.4 million people without U.S. citizenship are expected to apply in the first three years.

'Yes Means Yes' (SB 967) -- To receive state funding, colleges must only consider sex consensual if both parties actively agree to it and are not drunk or passed out, throwing out the old refrain of "no means no" and replacing it with "yes means yes." California becomes the first state in the nation to use this rubric for sexual consent.

Plastic Bag Ban (SB 270) -- Grocery stores across California must follow the lead of cities like Los Angeles and stop bagging items in single-use plastic bags and allowing them to charge 10¢ for paper bags, the first statewide plastic bag ban in the nation.

Groundwater Management (SB 1168, 1739, 1319) - A sweeping set of groundwater regulations that requires local water agencies to manage how much water is drawn from wells, making California the last Western state to end "pump-as-you-please" rules during a severe drought. Audrie's Law (SB 838) -- Teenagers convicted of sexually assaulting someone who is unconscious or can't give consent will face stiffer punishments, including mandatory sexual-offender treatment. The bill is named for Audrie Pott, a teenager who killed herself after photos surfaced of her sexual assault.

Selfie Revenge Porn Rights (SB 1255) -- Expanding a law that makes it a misdemeanor to distribute a naked picture of someone, often in an act of revenge, even if the photo was originally taken by the naked person.

• Sex Abuse Rights (SB 926) -- Children who claim they're victims of a sex crime have until their 40th birthday to file charges, up from their 28th birthday. (Applies only to crimes committed on or after January 1, 2015.

Mandatory Sick Leave (AB 1522) -- Starting July 1, anyone who works for 30 days is eligible to accrue sick pay under this law, known as the "Healthy Workplaces, Healthy Families Act." About 6.5 million workers are estimated to be affected by the law.

Massage Parlor Oversight (AB 1147) -- Local governments get greater oversight of massage parlors, which have been used as a front for sex trafficking.

Gun Owner Welfare Check (SB 505) -- Requires law enforcement agencies to encourage their officers to consult with gun ownership records when conducting welfare checks -- something agents didn't do before Isla Vista shooter Elliott Rodger killed six people in May.

Undocumented immigrants or students who overstayed their visas will have access to the same loan opportunities as other students at the Cal State University and University of California systems.
