

National Public Gardens Week

LSU AgCenter Botanic Gardens

May 13 – 17, 9 AM – NOON

Monday: Specialty Garden Day – Roses, Tropicals, Trees & Trails

9 am – Presentation and tour of rose garden

10 am – presentation and tour of tropical plants in Louisiana

11 am – tour of trees and trails

Tuesday: Family Garden Day – Pollinators & Herbs

9-10 am – presentation on herbs and pollinators

10 am – walk around the herb and pollinator gardens; activities and tables

Wednesday: Farm Day – Hay rides, AAS Garden, Orchards

Tour 1: 9 am – Hay ride and tour of orchard and AAS gardens

Tour 2: 10:30 am – Hay ride and tour of orchard and AAS gardens

Thursday: Invitation Only Volunteer Day to Honor our Volunteers

Friday: Historical Garden Day – Windrush Gardens

Tour 1: 9 am – tour of Windrush Gardens

Tour 2: 10:30 am – tour of Windrush Gardens

Description:

LSU AgCenter Botanic Gardens is proud to join American Public Gardens Association and 500+ gardens nationwide in celebrating National Public Gardens Week. This annual, weeklong event will be committed to emphasizing the import role public gardens across the country play in promoting education and exposure to our environment as well as our gardens. Each day of the week will have a themed agenda.

The event is free and open to the public. There is no registration necessary.

Please contact Hadley Guidry HKGuidry@agcenter.lsu.edu for any questions, comments, or concerns.