To whom it may concern,

It is my pleasure to provide this letter in support of Resolution # 203 (Missouri) Clay Bird Trap Shooting Competition in 2015.

We fully support the efforts of American Legion Post 218 in Washington, MO as they seek to incorporate into The American Legion Youth Shooting program, the Clay Bird (Trap) Shooting Competition.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

For God and Country,

Michael McDaniel

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to show my support of Resolution #203. I believe Clay Bird Trapshooting would be a good sport to add as an American Legion Youth Sport.

My family has had the good fortune to enjoy this sport for the last several years. Both my son and daughter shoot competitively. My husband has recently taken the NRA coaches class and taken over as coach to our local high school shooting team. We have been fortunate to meet some wonderful people through this sport.

Trap shooting is one of the unique sports that can be enjoyed and participated in by all ages. It teaches sportsmanship, concentration, gun safety, and much more. I would like to continue to see the sport grow in popularity and scope. I encourage you to pass the Resolution #203, and I look forward to seeing what the future of this sport has to offer.

Sincerely,

Tina Caryl

I would like to support Resolution #203 from American Legion Department of Missouri for a Claybird trap shooting competition program.

This program would be a great enhancement to the Jr. Shooting Sports program by encouraging yet another fun youth program which teaches gun safety and marksmanship.

It is a natural progressive path from the Jr. Shooting Sports program which teaches youth via pellet guns to the next step in shooting competition. We should be encouraging a fun activity that teaches self discipline, teamwork and competitive sportsmanship. Getting our youth involved in Legion sponsored programs like these gives them an understanding of our organization and all the things we do to support veterans. Our youth are our greatest asset and we should be investing in them.
