

Blessed is the man or woman who has a trustworthy set of moral principles by which to conduct his or her life. Instead of blindly trudging through this moral swamp, fearful of each step, uncertain where to plant our feet, we have solid ground and a well-lighted path stretched out before us, a path that will take us straight to our goal. Someone once asked, "What's the way to heaven?" He was told: "Take the first right, and go straight ahead." We can be sure-footed and light-hearted on that straight-ahead path because, as the psalmist tells us in Ps. 119, God's word lights our way (verse 105). This light the Bible gives us for our journey will put a spring in our step and a song in our heart. We can say with the psalmist: "Your principles have been the music of my life throughout the years of my pilgrimage" (Ps. 119:54 NLT). All for Jesus, Richard
