Dear Folks,

E.T.O.

The day after Thanksgiving and I've got quite a bit to be thankful for. I'm thankful first of all for my folks and my wife, - the best folks and the best wife a guy could have. Then I'm thankful just that I'm alive and that it is within my power to help get this war over with. And I'm thankful for my airplane and for the guns and the punch they pack, - and for the good throttle, too.

Next Thanksgiving I hope to be thankful that this war is all over and that we can buy automobiles and gasoline and all those other things.

Forgot to mention that I'm thankful I have such good pilots and boys in my flight and my outfit, - and most of all, the love that comes from everyone at home.

Love to all, Bub
