People Praying for People

Thank you, people of God, for praying for the younger people at The Ranch.

The Children's Ranch received a sibling group recently. We refer to these precious youngsters as The Sibs. The very night they arrived, I was able to pray over the two younger ones as they were going to get ready for their first night of sleep in this unknown place. Thanking the Lord for the opportunity to minister to these young souls and thanking Him that the Ranch is here for their sake, I closed the prayer and looked up with a smile. The youngest one looked back at me and confidently spoke up, "God will hear your prayer, because you said In Jesus Name!" I chuckled then — and I chuckle now just to think that our Sweet Savior brought The Sibs here because they obviously have already been introduced to Him.

On their way to California to visit Pat's family, they parked the camper in the San Pedro Campground in Benson, AZ for the month of February 2013. Pat was familiar with the area because she had lived nearby many years before while working in Tucson. What Pat didn't know was that a new element had been added to Benson: All The King's Horses Children's Ranch is now located right across from the campground! Don struck up a friendship with other San Pedro campers, Pattie and Jerry Papuga and Doug and Pam Waun, who volunteer at the Ranch. It wasn't long before Don met Ana, the Ranch's founder, and was volunteering there as well and using his carpentry, electrical and plumbing skills to assist in the building and
