Diana DeRosa is a veteran equestrian photo journalist, who has traveled the world and has recorded equestrian history for close to 30 years. Her story and photography have taken her to over 30 countries.

An accomplished rider herself, De Rosa understands the horse world from many different angles.

A language major in college, De Rosa went on to run a riding school, then was editor of an equine magazine for 13 years and eventually focused on her writing and photography. She has over 1000 published stories and photos to her credit.

De Rosa has been one of the few journalists to be credentialed to cover the past seven Olympic Games (including being on assignment for USA Today for the 1992 Olympics), and is already credentialed for her 8th Olympic Games in Rio in 2016. She has also covered or been on staff at every World Equestrian Games, numerous Pan American Games and World Cups.

Besides being a writer and photographer, De Rosa also owns her own PR firm called Press Link. Some of her past and present clients include the National Horse Show when it was at Madison Square Garden, the Washington International Horse Show, The Manhattan Mortgage Company, DreamWorks (for the movies Dreamer and Spirit), 20th Century Fox (for Flicka), the American Hunter-Jumper Foundation, the Equus Film Festival and Local Talent Connect.

For ten years De Rosa co-hosted the annual Hampton Classic Horse Show for the local Hamptons' TV Station WVVH. She also does some radio reporting and voiceovers. De Rosa enjoys bringing life to her many equestrian stories through her camera lens and keyboard. For eight years until his death on October 11, 2004, she also worked with the famed Christopher Reeve.

Her most recent endeavor has been combining the world of acting into her life. More about that can be seen at www.dianaderos.net. She also has two of her own columns on Examiner.com: National Horse Show Examiner and the NY Acting Scene Examiner.
