From the Desk of Rabbi Daniel Polish

F. Scott Fitzgerald was wrong. I don't mean about his underlying anti-Semitism which leached out in his writing from time to time. Of course he was wrong about that too. But I am thinking about how wrong he was when he said, "There are no second acts in American Lives".

We are about to observe our High Holy Days. And they are all about second acts. We take a hard and honest look at ourselves. Nothing wrong with patting ourselves on the back for what we did right. But we also have to be honest with ourselves about the things that we did that we are not proud of. And we get the chance to leave those things in the old year.

We are called on to do Teshuva. We evaluate ourselves, acknowledge our shortcomings, and apologize to the people we have wronged. And most importantly we are called on to change the patterns of our behavior. And if we do our "work" right, we are given the opportunity to start anew. We enter the new year as a "second act".

Our tradition gives us a great gift, the opportunity to clean our slate and start afresh. So I encourage you to take advantage of this great gift. May your work of Teshuvah go well. And may your second act be productive and joyous.

Cantor Hirschenfang joins me in wishing each of you a New Year of health, fulfillment and peace.

*B'Shalom,
Rabbi Daniel Polish*

Notes from Cantor Gail Hirschenfang

Beautiful Music at the High Holy Days

I am happy to let you know that this year's Shir Chadash High Holy Day worship will be infused with wonderful music, as always. As some of you are already aware, I will not be joining you for this year's High Holy Day services, but I know they will be exceptional. To help get you in the mood, I would like to share with you some biographical information on some of the extremely talented musicians that will be singing and playing for our service.

First and foremost, we will have many selections and anthems sung by members of our outstanding (and fearless!) Shir Chadash Choir. Our choir is comprised of several temple members who are extremely musical and deeply committed to enriching our worship experience with their time and talents. I am certain they will sing, as they always do, with true heart and soul.

Our musical director and pianist for the High Holy Day season will be Ruthanne Schempf. Ruthanne has played for us for many years and is deeply familiar with the liturgical music of Rosh Hashanna and Yom Kippur. Ruthanne has a deep affinity for our music and will work diligently with our choirs, both professional and lay, and our cellist. Many of you may not be aware that Ruthanne is a Professor at SUNY New Paltz in the Department of Music. She is also a member of the Pone Ensemble for New Music. Ruthanne holds a D.M.A and M.M. in Piano from the Manhattan School of Music. Ms. Schempf is an active chamber and solo musician and has performed throughout the United States. She is also a faculty member of the Interlochen Arts Camp where she can be found every summer. She has taught at Marist College and was the pianist for the Cadet Glee Club at West Point.

In her tenth year now, Brittany Sokolowski has been the soprano in our High Holy Day quartet. Brittany is a graduate of SUNY Purchase Conservatory of Music and holds her degree in Vocal Performance. She has participated in several operas during her time at Purchase. Brittany has a great facility for languages and is conversant in French, Italian, German, and Arabic. Following her time at SUNY Purchase, she taught French at Woodstock Day School. Brittany is a talented singer and musician. Both her father, Charles, and her brother, Christopher, have sung our High Holy Day services in past years.

Teresa Hitchcock also attended SUNY Purchase Conservatory of Music and holds a degree in Vocal Performance. An outstanding student, she had leads in many of the school's productions, including Rosalinde in Die Fledermaus, the witch and mother in Hansel and Gretel, and the Mother in Amahl and the Night Visitors. Teresa has also been with us for many years and brings a soulful and beautiful sound to her mezzo soprano singing.

New to Shir Chadash this year is our tenor, Ross Schwaber. Ross holds a master's degree in Vocal Performance from Hunter College. A talented opera singer and pianist, he teaches private students in voice, piano, and language diction. Ross sings with various opera companies in and around NYC. He is on the faculty of Trevor Day School as a music instructor. Ross has performed a great deal of Jewish music and has sung duets with his friend, Cantor David Rosen of Westchester. Ross' voice is exciting and his musicianship outstanding.

Our bass this year is the very talented Kent Smith. Kent is an Associate Professor of Music at SUNY New Paltz and runs their voice program. Many of his voice students have won prizes and awards. He holds a BFA from Carnegie Mellon University. Kent's vast musical career includes singing opera, operetta, and musical theatre. He has been a soloist with many opera companies including the New York City Opera, Lyric Opera of Cleveland and the Caramoor Music Festival.

In November of 2017, while on sabbatical from SUNY New Paltz, he performed the role of composer, Virgil Thompson, in the opera, The Mother of Us All, performed at the historic Hudson Opera House. Kent is also a gifted pianist and has played services for us on a few Friday nights.

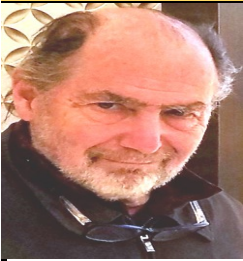

For the last many years, those of you who have attended our beautiful Kol Nidre services have experienced the gifts of cellist, Susan Seligman. Susan has been playing cello since the fourth grade and it seems she hasn't put it down since. She has been the principal cellist for the Hudson Valley Philharmonic since 1984. She has taught at Vassar College and is now a Professor of Music at SUNY New Paltz. She has played with the Innisfree Piano Trio on occasion as well. Susan has played Kol Nidre services for Shir Chadash for close to a decade and it was particularly touching when she would bring her father to services with her.

Although I cannot worship with you this year, I know our music will be in very capable hands! I extend my wishes to all of you for a happy and healthy 5779!

L'Shalom, Cantor Gail P. Hirschenfang

A Message from President Lindsey Turner

New Year Wishes

Hello to all our Shir Chadash Friends!

Nicky and I are traveling through the northern part of Portugal. Yesterday we stopped at the town of Tomar, where there is the oldest and best preserved existing medieval Synagogue in Portugal. We walked down an ancient wobbly cobblestone street to find the building covered by scaffolding. Disappointed, we walked to read the sign that said it was under restoration, but from under the tarp covering, wafted the smell of fresh paint. We ducked under the tarp and found locked newly restored doors, but through a window, Nicky took these beautiful pictures.

Four ancient columns supporting a gothic vault, the area where the Bima will be again, we saw meticulously covered and protected. Looks like rules for restoration are being carefully followed.

Nicky and I wish you a Happy Rosh Hashanah with your lives starting over new and fresh as a wonderful new coat of paint and High Holy Days full of family and joy and new beginnings.

*Affectionately,
B 'Shalom
Lindsey Turner*

A Message from Sue Marcove Education Enrichment Coordinator

CALLING ALL SHIR CHADASH STUDENTS & PARENTS - WELCOME BACK!!

Come and check out the curriculum for the 2018-2019 school year. As we go into the third year of our three-year curriculum cycle, Tikkun Olam, Tzedakah, and G'milut Chasadim, giving and doing to help our world, will be threaded throughout as it was the past two years.

However, this year's major themes will be God and Prayer: how our understanding of God & prayer help us to lead good, happy lives; Jewish History: how and why has Judaism changed since Abraham; and how and why Jews have held onto traditions through pogroms, World War II, and the diaspora.

Again we will be including parents as an integral part of our program, starting with all children and parents meeting together from 9-9:15 a.m. on September 9th for an introduction to the new school year.

Some highlights of what is to come:

1. Students leading a Shabbat Service.
2. Students acting out segments of Jewish history.
3. Classes learning about meanings of Shabbat and Holidays as they study G-d and prayer.
4. A day of friendly competition to review the year's studies.
5. Student Teacher Training Program for teens who would like to continue their Jewish Education.

IT ALL BEGINS ON SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH AT 8:45AM FOR REGISTRATION & BREAKFAST!

Parents please note: Bagel time will be at 8:45am before class. School will start at 9:00am in the sanctuary (no food allowed!). Students who come late can get a nosh at Kiddush at 10:30am. Class time upstairs will be short, so come early for breakfast and time to socialize. Do join us with your children for services at 10:45am.

Our next selection for our Rosh Chodesh Reading Group is the novella “Goodbye, Columbus” by Phillip Roth who died May 22, 2018. The 1959 novella is the first book published by Roth and won the National Book Award. You’ve probably read the book and seen the movie, and 1959 is a long time ago. AUTHOR PHILLIP ROTH, WHO DIED MAY 22, 2018.

Roth's award-winning first book instantly established its author's reputation as a writer of explosive wit, merciless insight, and a fierce compassion for even the most self-deluding of his characters.

“Goodbye, Columbus” is the story of Neil Klugman and pretty, spirited Brenda Patimkin, he of poor Newark, she of suburban Short Hills, who meet one summer break and dive into an affair that is as much about social class and suspicion as it is about love. The novella is accompanied by five short stories that range in tone from the iconoclastic to the astonishingly tender and that illuminate the subterranean conflicts between parents and children and friends and neighbors in the American Jewish diaspora. TIKKUM OLAM 5779

The year 5779 is a great time to contribute to repairing the world—together we can make a real difference in the lives of our neighbors in need!

Upcoming projects to add to your calendar:

MORSE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL: Are you purchasing new school supplies for your kids? Do you have school or office supplies that you're not using? Consider donating whatever you can to this project! With 100% of the over 600 kids, ages 6—11, eligible for the National Free or Reduced-Price Lunch Program, parents and teachers struggle to provide the supplies these students need to succeed in school. Composition books, especially wide-ruled, 3-hole wide-ruled notebook paper, and crayons, markers, pencils and backpacks are especially needed but all donations are welcome. And throw in a few pairs of kids' socks, they are always needed! Bring donations to any service or activity or contact us for pickup.

YOM KIPPUR FOOD DRIVE: Pick up a few empty shopping bags on Rosh Hashanah and bring them back full on Yom Kippur. All donations will be distributed to the Dutchess Outreach and Morse School Pantries.

FEED THE HOMELESS: On Thursday evening, October 25th, Shir Chadash will provide dinner for 70 guests in need of emergency housing at Hillcrest House & Webster House, 28 Snow Terrace, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601. We need your help! Could you prepare a foil pan of ziti? Could you donate baby carrots, cut up peppers? How about cookies? Apples? Cider? Help serve the dinner?

Let us know: sjlash@optonline.net

COATS AND SWEATERS FOR THE COLD WEATHER COMING:

Cleaning out your closets and drawers? Saw a great deal on sweatshirts? Bring your donations, any size, new or gently used, to any service or activity or ask for pickup (before Thanksgiving). Donations will go to the Dutchess Outreach Clothes Closet and the Morse School.

Watch for more opportunities to help repair the world!

Win/Win With Groceries UPDATE!

Join us in an easy fund-raising effort that will fit right into your weekly grocery trip. Just buy grocery GIFT CARDS from Shir Chadash. This is how it works: Buy gift cards in $25 increments from Shir Chadash. Choose Tops, Hannafords, ShopRite, Adams Fairacre Farms or Stop & Shop. You can also purchase a gift card to support our programs to feed the hungry. When Shir Chadash has accumulated $1,000 per store, you get your cards. A percentage of the money you spend comes back to Shir Chadash.

Use PayPal to place your order - you can use a credit card even if you don't have a PayPal account.

Turn around time depends on you...the quicker I have complete orders, the quicker the cards come in. And you do not have to be a member of Shir Chadash to participate. Call or email me with any questions. Please order your cards now.....
