

THE MIND OF CHRIST MINISTRIES

“Changing Lives and Making a Difference”

OUR OBJECTIVES:

- To treat every person with dignity and respect.
- To value individuals over objectives or programs.
- To be good stewards of all resources available to us.
- To handle every situation will be handled with both integrity and compassion.
- To conduct all operations in a moral, legal and ethical manner.
- To provide early drug and alcohol prevention and intervention services.
- To develop collaborative relationships with treatment agencies to better serve those in need.

- To provide high quality prevention and intervention programs to support a safe learning environment.

- To identify the needs within our local and surrounding communities and seek to provide responding outreach and mission opportunities.
- To focus our ministry on building relationships that will bring healing and transformation.
- To develop effective strategies to overcome constraints and maximize opportunities in implementing and planning available resources to improve safe environment for our communities.
