

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Sew on and Sew Forth

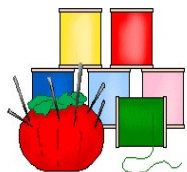

The July (Picnic) and Rummage Sale was a great success. Treasurer Ginger Wanserski reports $700 was raised for the guild's upcoming programs. Kitty Friend's and Mary Wolter's energetic quilt judging enlightened us with tips to make our quilts more ribbon-friendly entries.

Speaking of ribbons, the Racine County Fair presented Sherry Gruhn of Union Grove with the Margaret Lizdas Award for her quilt entry.

Elsewhere in this newsletter is information about open guild positions for the 2023-2024 years. Please consider how you can be of service to your guild. We will discuss this further at our August general meeting.

Until next month.....Every day has its blessings. Find yours. Anonymous.

Upcoming program for August

Program: 3D and Illusion Quilting Christopher Weinhold

Through a slide show and quilt samples we will explore the history of 3D quilting as well as the design and development of the “Escher” quilts. These quilts are not actual MC Escher designs, but rather inspired by his work in the 3D art world. Christopher will also share other quilts he has designed and patterns he has written.

workshops

Escher – Kaffe August 29

This pattern is the third in a series of MC Escher inspired quilts. Bold prints work well in the construction of this quilt. The cubes along with the original Escher Y's make for a fabulously dimensional quilt. No Y seams used in construction makes this project simpler than the complex design appears. The pattern will be included in the price of this workshop.

Lutheran Church of the Resurrection from 9-4
A minimum of 10 registrations are required to hold this workshop
Members: $45/Nonmembers $50

Homestead Star September 26

This class starts with the how-to of Fabric Selection, continuing on with precision machine piecing techniques that result in cutaways that can cleverly be used to make a second quilt out of the leftovers. The class continues with information on how to decide what quilting pattern goes where, as well as how to accomplish those quilting techniques with your home sewing machine

In Case You Missed It

There is so much information in the newsletter.

Mary Wolter and Kitty Friend may still be in need of volunteers for the quilt show. Do support them and the guild and volunteer your time. It's a fun way of meeting new members.

We are still in need of a VP of Planning. Nancy Fenske needs a co-chair for Hospitality to finish out the year. There are only four meetings remaining and your help is especially needed.

You are what keeps the guild going and serving on the board is your opportunity to share your ideas of how we can be a better guild.

Keep informed by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.

Lighthouse Quilters Guild

Guild Meeting

July 25, 2022

In-Person and Zoom Virtual Meeting

The July meeting was a special one in two respects. Thirty-six members attended the meeting and enjoyed purchasing donated quilting items at the huge rummage sale. Items ranged from fabric to books and supplies and included special silent auction pieces. Funds from the sale are used to pay for Guild programs.

The meeting was also unique because it included a quilt judging by Kitty Friend. Fifteen Guild members joined those in-person to watch the judging online. While members who submitted quilts benefited from Kitty's feedback about their work, all Guild members had an opportunity to hear Kitty discuss judging criteria and tips about submitting quilts to be judged. Quilts were included in six categories (lap quilts, crib quilts, charity quilts, wall hangings, tablerunners/tabletoppers, and first judged entry). Kitty gave first, second and third place ribbons in each of the categories (except first time entry where there was only one!). Mary Wolter helped organize and facilitate the judging. Several members mentioned how much they appreciated this program.

No business items were discussed at the meeting

Read a Q&A with Ken Burns about this year's featured exhibit Uncovered: The Ken Burns Collection

Portrait of Ken Burns
by Evan Barlow

Did you know documentary filmmaker Ken Burns collects historic American quilts? On loan from his private collection, these handmade artifacts not only tell stories from our history, but share the spirit of people who lived it.

Explore Uncovered: The Ken Burns Collection at the 2022 Great Wisconsin Quilt Show! In anticipation of this special exhibit, PBS Wisconsin spoke with Ken Burns about his love of quilts and what he hopes viewers will take away from seeing his collection. Enjoy this lovely Q&A about quilts and the joy they bring us.

July 2022 Meeting

The July meeting was full of fun including a rummage sale with many tables brimming with fabulous fabrics, books, rulers, and many other quilting items. This sale generated $800 to the guild's general fund. We also were treated to a quilt judging—members brought quilts and Kitty Friend, who needed to judge a show to enable her to secure her judging certification, aided by Mary Wolter and assisted by Laurie Mielke.

We were able to hear and see what judges consider when awarding ribbons.

We learned a great deal and had lots of laughs in the process!

A note from Kitty

I wanted to say thank you to all the brave members who allowed me to judge your quilts in the presence of the guild members. There were plenty of quilts to judge. This was a step I needed to complete for my quilt judging certification. Mary and I hope those of you who were at the meeting, learned something new.

Thank you to Mary Wolter for assisting me with the judging.

Thank you to Laurie Mielke for clearing my table for me.

Most importantly, thank you to those of you, who brought your quilts for me to judge.

--Kitty Friend

Tips from Kitty and Mary

What does a judge look for—and what matters!

Pet hair is a big no no! So is dirt!

No fraying on raw edge applique

No start/stop lines showing

A miniature quilt has to have miniature binding....no ¼ inch

Corners need to be 90°

Long arm/free motion - 10 stitches per inch is too big

Lots of seams makes a wart! Pressing open will minimize that

Winner is the usually the one with the most techniques

Ribbons don't have to be awarded—just because you are the only entry does not guarantee a ribbon

Never use dots for the binding. They don't line up well.

Stitch the corners!

Marie Raymond

Sadly, our friend and fellow guild member, Marie Raymond passed away August 10. She had been a member of LHQ for 21 years and was a featured quilter in Lighthouse Legacies 2013.

Her daughter, Laura Sanders, also a fellow guild member and Board VP-membership, said that she had two falls recently and the last one caused a brain bleed. "We didn't think she would survive that night, but she made it through and the family had a beautiful morning with her when she regained consciousness and engaged with us - it was a gift of time with us.

Thank you all for being such wonderful friends to her."

Her funeral is scheduled for 11:30 am, Friday August 26 at St Rita's Church.
A funeral luncheon at Roma Lodge will follow and all are welcome to attend.
