

THELMA H. WEISENBACH

1917-1993

Thelma H. Weisenbach, 75, lifelong resident of the Sebawaing Area, died Saturday morning, March 20, at Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe, following a lengthy illness.

She was born Thelma H. Bossert, in Brookfield Township on May 15, 1917, a daughter of John G. and Hannah (Emm) Bossert and stepmother, Stella Spaeth.

She married Harold H. Weisenbach in Caro on November 24, 1934, and he survives her. She was a member of Sebawaing Assembly of God.

Surviving, in addition to her husband, Harold, are six sons and their spouses, Robert (Barbara) Weisenbach, Richard (Shirley) Weisenbach, Dennis (Nell) Weisenbach, Harold, Jr. (Margaret) Weisenbach and Gary (Barbara) Weisenbach, all of Sebawaing, and Donald (Karen) Weisenbach of Owendale; five daughters and spouses, Shirley (Charles) Gauth, Geraldine Koepf, Betty (Benny) Carter and Kathy (Robert) Hodder, all of Sebawaing, and Barbara (William) Sting of Saginaw; 34 grandchildren; two step-grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren, two nieces and three nephews.

One son, David, one great-grandson, Aaron Koepf, one brother, Truman Bossert, and one sister, Mildred Egnatovic, all preceded her in death.

The funeral service is scheduled for Tuesday, March 23 (today) at 11 a.m., at Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home. Rev. John Deering is officiating and burial will be in Sebawaing Assembly of God Cemetery.

Friends planning to offer memorials are invited to consider Sebawaing Assembly of God.
