Fifth Sunday of Pascha – The Samaritan Woman

Acts 11:19-26, 29-30; Gospel John 4:5-42

MEMORIAL DAY

"Memorial Day is a time to remember those who kept the faith and died in service to our country...It is our duty as Americans to praise their sacrifice, to bless their memories, to pray for their eternal repose, and to thank God for the freedom they preserve for us." - Metropolitan Antony.

The origins of Memorial Day date back to the Civil War when many cities and towns would set aside a day to remember those who died in the war. Originally called Decoration Day, it was officially proclaimed by General John Logan, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, on May 5, 1868, and was first observed on May 30 of that year when flowers were placed on the graves of Union and Confederate soldiers buried at Arlington National Cemetery. In 1971, Congress passed a law placing the celebration of Memorial Day on the last Monday in May.

Acts 11:19-26, 28-30

Now the people who were scattered by the persecution that started because of Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews. But among them were some men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who came to Antioch and began proclaiming the Lord Jesus even to the Hellenistic Jews. The hand of the Lord was with them, and a large number of people believed and turned to the Lord. When the church in Jerusalem heard this news, they sent Barnabas all the way to Antioch. When he arrived, he rejoiced to see what the grace of God had done, and with hearty determination he kept encouraging all of them to remain faithful to the Lord, because he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith. And so, a large number of people was brought to the Lord.

Then Barnabas left for Tarsus to look for Saul. When he found him, he brought him to Antioch, and for a whole year they were guests of the church and taught many people. It was in Antioch that the disciples were first called Christians. So all of the disciples decided they would send a contribution to the brothers living in Judea, as they were able, by sending it through[i] Barnabas and Saul to the elders.

John 4:5-42

Jacob's Well was also there, and Jesus, tired out by the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon. A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus told her, "Please give me a drink," since his disciples had gone off into town to buy food. The Samaritan woman asked him, "How can you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" Because Jews do not have anything to do with Samaritans. Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, 'Please give me a drink,' you would have been the one to ask him, and he would have given you living water."

The woman told him, "Sir, you don't have a bucket, and the well is deep. Where are you going to get this living water? You're not greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it, along with his sons and his flocks, are you?" Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks this water will become thirsty again. But whoever drinks the water that I will give him will never become thirsty again. The water that I will give him will become a well of water for him, springing up to eternal life." The woman told him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I won't get thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water." He told her, "Go and call your husband, and come back here." The woman answered him, "I don't have a husband." Jesus told her, "You are quite right in saying, 'I don't have a husband,' because you have had five husbands, and the man you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true." The woman told him, "Sir, I see that you are a prophet! Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain. But you Jews say that the place where people should worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus told her, "Believe me, dear lady, the hour is coming when you Samaritans will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You don't know what you're worshipping. We Jews know what we're worshipping, because salvation comes from the Jews. Yet the time is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit] and truth. Indeed, the Father is looking for people like that to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

The woman told him, "I know that the Anointed One] is coming, who is being called 'the Messiah'. When that person comes, he will explain everything." "I AM," Jesus replied, "the one who is speaking to you."

At this point his disciples arrived, and they were astonished that he was talking to a woman. Yet no one said, "What do you want from her?" or, "Why are you talking to her?" Then the woman left her water jar and went back to town. She told people, "Come, see a man who told me everything I've ever done! Could he possibly be the Messiah?" The people left the town and started on their way to him. Meanwhile, the disciples were urging him, "Rabbi, have something to eat." But he told them, "I have food to eat that you know nothing about." So, the disciples began to say to one another, "No one has brought him anything to eat, have they?"

Jesus told them, "My food is doing the will of the one who sent me and completing his work. You say, don't you, 'In four more months the harvest will begin?' Look, I tell you, open your eyes and observe that the fields are ready for harvesting now! The one who harvests is already receiving his wages and gathering a crop for eternal life, so that the one who sows and the one who harvests may rejoice together. In this respect the saying is true: 'One person sows, and another person harvests.' I have sent you to harvest what you have not worked for. Others have worked, and you have adopted their work as your own." Now many of the Samaritans of that town believed in Jesus because the woman had testified, "He told me everything I've ever done." So, when the Samaritans came to Jesus, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there for two days. And many more believed because of what he said. They kept telling the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, because now we have heard him ourselves, and we know that he really is the Savior of the world."

Around the Parish Community

A very big THANK YOU to all who helped make 140 dozen perogies this week for SLAVIC FEST. We had the help of 14 workers which was very much appreciated for such a big job.

Father Ivan saved the day by making all the dough and was an inspiration to us all.

So, for Yvonne and her friend Sandy, Howard, Ann K, Susan P, Anna A. Beverly, Maria, Sandy, Marianne, Barbara, Karen and Irene. Although we don't have pictures of all the workers, we wanted to give you a glimpse of the operation.

*May God grant you many years!

STS. PETER AND PAUL CENTENARIANS

On Monday May 6, 2019, Beverly Henry and Susan Perankovich visited Mary Goncey, who will be celebrating her 101st Birthday on Tuesday, June 18, 2019. The pictures tell the story.

Sts. Peter & Paul is blessed with not just one Centenarian, but two: Nancy Racz will celebrate her 101st Birthday on July 14, 2019.

ABOUT MEMORIAL DAY

It's not appropriate to say, "Happy Memorial Day," just as you wouldn't celebrate a loved one's funeral. This is a time to remember our fallen; it should be a somber reminder of the brave sacrifice men and women have made to keep the United States a free and just society. ... Memorial Day is for them.'
