

The Blue Wave After School Program Discipline Policy

The Blue Wave After School Program holds students accountable for their behavior. A number of factors will be considered in determining the level of misbehavior and the resulting consequences. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- Seriousness of offense
- Planning or impulse
- Age
- Disability, if any
- Reliability of evidence
- Cooperation/remorse
- Disciplinary history, if any

Behaviors and their consequences are divided into three levels, beginning with Level 1, each level represents progressively more serious misbehavior and consequence.

Level I

Behaviors:

- Inappropriate language
- Disruptive behavior
- Defiance
- Unsafe acts

Consequences: Parent Conference, Behavior Plan, Time out, withdrawal of privileges
