

ST. ANDREW SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS 2019

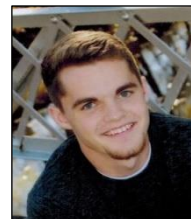

Megan Anguiano

Tim Barbieri

Abigail Elliott

Damian Hartman

Ivy Tompkins

Jackson Welsh

Hanna Willey

Fred and Dorothy Holmstrom Memorial Scholarship

Ivy Tompkins, daughter of JoAnna and Chad Tompkins, plans to attend the University of Kansas to study Animation and Illustration in film and tv. A St. Andrew school alum, she attended NCYC and CYO activities; and a regular Mass cantor. At Abilene High School she was a member of the National Honor Society, Band, Forensics, Scholars Bowl, German Honors and AHS singers and musicals. She was a regular in Great Plains Theatre productions.

Damian Hartman is the son of Brad and Jenell Hartman and plans to attend Washburn University to major in biology to pursue a physical therapy degree. As a St. Andrew school alum, he has been active as a regular Music minister, CYO, NCYC, Totus Tuus, CYO camp, and Prayer and Action. At Abilene High School he was active in National Honor Society, German Honors, School Newspaper, Cross Country, Track, and Basketball.

Knights of Columbus Council #1661 Scholarship

Abigail Elliott, daughter of David and Angela Elliott will be attending the University of Kansas to study Molecular & Cellular Developmental Biology. A St. Andrew school alum, Abigail has been a regular cantor at Sunday Masses for most of her high school years. At Abilene High School she was a member of AHS musicals, Singers, National Honor Society, Scholars Bowl. She has been a member of Great Plain Players.

Ladies of St. Andrew Scholarship

Megan Anguiano, daughter of Marc and Kristi Anguiano is planning to attend Kansas State University to major in Animal Science and Industries. An alumni of St. Andrew School, Megan has been active in church, teaching a CRE class this year, Counselor for Discover Camp at St. Joseph Motherhouse for three years; attending NCYC and Prayer and Action. She has been involved in FFA, National Honor Society, Spanish Honors, Cross-country and Track.

Bill and Louise Miller Memorial Scholarship

Jackson Welsh, son of Jeff and Leslie Welsh, will be attending Kansas State University to major in Political Science. A St. Andrew school alum, Jackson has been involved at church as a regular accompanist, cantor and Men's choir member, CYO, and NCYC. At Abilene High School he was in Student Council, National Honor Society, Jazz Band, Singers, Musicals, National Speech and Debate, Forensics, State Honor Choir as well as being a regular actor in productions at Great Plains Theatre.

Hannah Willey, daughter of Mark and Renae Willey, plans to play basketball and continue her studies in business and mass media at Washburn University. At St. Andrew church she participated in service opportunities. At Abilene High School she was a National Honor Society student, played basketball, softball, volleyball; German honors, and FCA.

Ray and Anne Whitehair Memorial Scholarship

Tim Barbieri, son of Ted and Katy Barbieri, will be playing basketball at Kansas City Kansas Community College while pursuing a sports management degree. A St. Andrew School alum, Tim has been active in CYO, NCYC, and Prayer and Action. At Abilene High School he was in National Honor Society, basketball and tennis.

In recognition of an outstanding pool of applicants, Ladies of St. Andrew's and Knights of Columbus are giving additional awards to the following:

Logan Anguiano, son of Jon Anguiano and Jacque Foster will play football at Ft. Hays University studying psychology and human health.

Justin Deters, son of Steve and Cynthia Deters attending Kansas State University in Precision Agriculture.

Harlie Delay, daughter of Chris and Jenna Delay will attend Nebraska Wesleyan University to pursue a degree in psychology and theatre.

Courtney DeWeese, daughter of Doug DeWeese and Crystal Chaput will attend Emporia State University to study business administration.

Kendra Guy, daughter of J.T. and Denise Guy will be attending Kansas State University studying biology to become a healthcare provider.

Lauren Hoover, daughter of Jeff and Kelly Hoover plans to attend Cloud County Community College to work toward a degree in respiratory therapy.