

INSIDER IN THE ITALIAN JOB

Have you found a vehicle in Italy but are very concerned by the language and uncertainty of buying in a foreign country? ASMG Italia Classic Car Project Consultancy, run by Alan McNaughton Gisby, provides an independent purchase support portfolio of services such as inspections and document checks, import and export assistance, as well as negotiating price and managing sellers. For example, detailed inspection and photographic reports are available from £250. The Italian-speaking firm, based in Veneto, can also manage projects and restorations in well proven facilities, as well as logistics to complete the service. www.asmgitalia.com.
