The Justice Catherine D. Kimball Summer Institute

Chief Justice Catherine D. Kimball, a staunch supporter of the LCLCE, paved the way for the LCLCE to create programs that are meaningful and useful to hundreds of educators throughout the state.

The Louisiana District Judges Association, with the desire to continue Chief Justice Kimball's commitment to civic education in Louisiana, has made a generous donation to create a sustaining endowment fund to support the annual Summer Institute. The purpose of this fund is to insure the continuance of the Summer Institute which provides teacher training at no cost to teachers. In honor of Chief Justice Kimball, the Summer Institute has been renamed the Justice Catherine D. Kimball Summer Institute.

Dedicated to Training Teachers in
Civic and Law Related Education

Donations to The Justice Catherine D. Kimball Summer Institute endowment fund will be used in perpetuity for the continuance of teacher training in Louisiana. For more information, click here.

Constitution Day 2012

Over 2000 Louisiana students statewide received visits from distinguished members of their legal community in honor of 2012 Constitution Day. Special thanks to schools, teachers, lawyers and judges who participated.
