Ellis Park Retires Another Gazette Trophy

Al Bailey Pro At Omaha Club

Al Bailey, who won The Gazette City Amateur golf championship in August with a record 72-hole score of eight under par, is the No. 2 assistant pro at the Happy Hollow Country club at Omaha.

John Tillman, head pro, said he expects to move Bailey up to the spot of No. 1 assistant next year. Happy Hollow, site of Western Open, Trans-Mississippi and other big tournaments in recent years, has 750 members.

BAILEY

Bailey played golf on the U. of Iowa's team last spring. He was a semifinalist in the 1965 National Public Links tourney at Pittsburgh. Al is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey, 1137 Ninth street NW.
