Please provide a brief description of your merchandise as you would like it to appear in the program and on the web site. ** New vendors; Please describe your merchandise, display and include a photo of your booth.

Items to be sold must be fiber related. Our goal is to provide a great fair that supports our artisans and producers. You may sell items you make yourself or items manufactured from fiber you produce. Weaving supplies, tools, books, yarn and fabric are also allowed.

Imported finished goods are not allowed. These items include garments, scarves, hats, toys, gloves, hangings, placemats, bags, rugs and other finished items. An exception may be made for cooperatives that work directly with artisans from other countries, at the discretion of the Fiber Fair committee. We will ask you to remove items that are not allowed.

EDUCATION: Demonstrations and workshops are a major aspect of our fair. We strive to offer low cost workshops and free demonstrations to inspire the attendants. We ask all vendors to offer a minimum of one demonstration in the exhibit hall that. Please explain your demonstration as you would like it to appear on the web site and program. Include any material fee to be charged to participants.
