

MAPPLETON : The cliffs in the defended section have been degraded to reduce their angle. This reduction in cliff angle lessens the impact of gravity on the slope and makes sub-aerial processes, mass movement, landslips and rock fall far less likely.

