

Daina and Al have been married for 30 years. They recently retired from the Children's Ranch as full-time house parents after having served in that capacity from 2012 - 2018. Before that Daina was a stay-at-home parent to her grandson and also one of her nephews. Daina worked for 11 years in the floral department of Benson's Safeway where her mastery of floral design remains a respected talent.

Daina continues to work directly with children as a Sunday school teacher at First Baptist Church in Benson. She and Al have a home in St David with their dog and two cats.
