CONCERNS

The good news is that Nichole and Brandon's house is under contract. They will be moving in with Brandon's family for a period of time. In the midst of all the moving, Ava Grace will be having her tonsils out. Hold them tight.

Billy Sprinkle, husband of a co-worker of Melissa Hendrix, began chemo last week for lung cancer.

Rainbow Kidz Camp starts this week for about 65 children who have suffered the loss of a loved one. Remember those who work hard to make this camp meaningful and healing for those children.

Terry Hamby's dad, Jim, was moved to Hospice House last week.

Hold Mike Johns tight. There is a possibility that he has shingles again, he has a root canal on Tuesday, and he is trying to maintain his summer classes. He has a lot on his plate!

Wife of Dee Hamm has a broken leg. She has been diagnosed with blood clots in her lungs as well.

Jean Stroupe's mother is hospitalized with issues related to her lungs and is undergoing pulmonary rehab

Mary Ruth is in Maple Leaf for a little while for rehab. While going to visit her, Rosemary and Marjorie were in a head-on collision and both are hospitalized.

Remember Danielle Golden and her children as they experience their first Father's Day without JJ.

Remember the family of Frances Parks.

Nancy Davis' father suffered a brain bleed on Thursday and is in critical condition. Hold the entire Davis family tight.

Gina's mother was taken to Baptist Hospital Wednesday night and is undergoing tests.
