We hope everyone enjoyed this time of the year
 with family and friends all gathered near.
 The gifts have been opened, the feasts have been eaten.
 Now reflect on the passing of 2015,
 Then leap into new year 2016!

Left: Warm, fun day for Santa's visit.
 Below: Santa's food truck collected non-perishables for donation. THANKS!

Bay Hills looked festive on every street! Judges awarded Publix gift cards to these HOA members for their DIY efforts!

Bay Hills Pride

Let's resolve in 2016 to be considerate of our neighbors:

- ♦ Keep pets on a leash or behind fencing when outdoors (cats as well as dogs) and pick up after them
- ♦ Don't go "hog" wild on those Harley's (or Hondas, etc) on our quiet streets
- ♦ Do our best to maintain our homes
- ♦ Park in driveways or on streets (not in yards) without blocking intersections
- ♦ Look out for one another
- ♦ Pay our $20 dues so we can claim the Bay Hills discounts from Progressive Waste Solutions honestly
- ♦ Swallow our personal pride and correct the things that detract from the attractiveness of the neighborhood or flout the Deed Restrictions that attach to our property

Bay Hills is a highly desirable residential neighborhood—we all have a desire and duty to keep it that way.
