You are most welcome to invite me to speak to your group, church, home cell, men's or ladies meeting, school, and whatever group you can gather. Please put me to work as much as you like, speeding up the advancement of God's Kingdom. ☺

UNREACHED TRIBE • WE MAKE CONTACT

... cut off from contacting their unreached cousins ...

Praise JESUS! In August this year was our fourth contact with the unreached tribe since Nov 2013 (To see previous editions of this newsletter, please visit <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Amazon-Missions/455768391230318>).

Working with my local Latin American and ethnic associate missionaries, also owing so much to your prayers and involvement, we are progressing in our way establishing lasting relationships with this tribe.

As opportunity presented up I took my guitar and began to sing and play to some of the members of the tribe who'd come out onto the riverbank. Ordinarily fearful and skittish, we were astonished that they stood completely still whilst listening to the music. The anointing of God was present in the air and I, myself, was deeply moved because of this incident. It was as if some primeval instinct told them they could have known such music before, had their tribe been given the opportunity to develop as their cousins have.

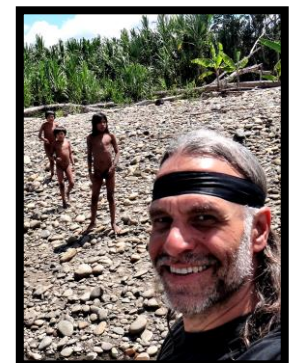

Building relationships with members of the tribe is a gradual process where quality is of the essence, and time is not. At this stage things remain sensitive and every continued visit is done with care creating trust. In these early stages the most important work that we do is the sharing of clothes and food, Isaiah 58:7.

Canadians ministering

It is amazing that JESUS happened to follow the same principle when reaching out to the multitudes of physically feeding the people before he ministered to them spiritually. After this we share about how the Creator sent us to them with a message of hope and good news.

Devotionals – Learning Spanish

For the past 30 years and longer, local ethnic Indian communities in the region have been cut off from contacting their unreached cousins, (of the same language and culture), by international anthropological endeavours.

Laws passed by governments make it illegal to enter these areas and contact with unreached tribes, sentencing them to isolation, whether or not they like it. In fact, they don't, which is why members of the tribe are increasingly emerging from the jungle in search of food.

This tribal group consists of smaller clans dispersed over vast areas of jungle. What we have encountered here, is the tip of the iceberg. Please continue to pray for and support this mission!

FEEDBACK ON THE CANADIANS

The group of Canadians who joined me gave a very good report regarding our outreach and several have asked to go along again. Walter, my ethnic associate missionary on this trip, as usual proved how valuable he is to the team in leadership, assisting etc. working to extend the Kingdom of God.

PRAYER, SUPPORT AND THANKS

Handing out of Bibles

Good news! Your giving has made it possible for us to buy a new motor for Ps Ramon's canoe, my associate missionary. The previous one seized whilst we were working there this season. This will enable him to continue visiting the unreached tribe on a regular basis. Thank you for your unselfish involvement in this matter.

THIS YEAR, 2014, I CELEBRATE 21 YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL AMAZON MISSIONS DUE TO YOUR PRAYERS AND SUPPORT! PLEASE CONTINUE TO:

1. Pray that people in the audiences where I will tour will be stirred to get involved.
2. Pray that the knowledge of God's work in the Amazon will spread far and wide.
