Learn how to paint in watercolor series at Artworks Gallery.

The Artworks Gallery in downtown Seneca Falls is offering a weekly series of classes on all aspects of basic watercolor painting. Instructor, Roberta Nelson, says, "Are you looking for something creative and always wanted to learn how to use watercolor? Look no further. This series of classes is just for you."

Dates: Every Friday beginning 2/1/19 and ending 4/26/19 (no class 4/19/19 Good Friday)

Time: 1pm - 3pm

Cost: $40.00 per month

Locations: Seneca County Art Council, 109 Fall St., Seneca Falls, NY 13148

Number of Participants Required: 5

Registration: Cut-off Date: 1/28//19

Class Description: This is not a workshop where the work is completed in one day or several days. The classes are geared for those who want to try watercolors but are intimidated by the medium, those who want to try something new, and those who are in the beginning stages of watercolor painting. Each class will build upon the last giving you information and experience. You will learn the uses of the various hues and values of watercolor paints, the application of watercolor wash techniques, the application of different watercolor painting methods, and compositional procedures. The classes encompass discussions, demonstrations, and painting exercises. The final month will focus on completing a painting in your individual choice of topic.

Materials Provided by Participant: a set of watercolor paints (do not use paints that say Hue), round and flat brushes, 140lb. watercolor tablet no smaller than 9"x12", a firm board a little larger than the paper size to stretch the paper, palette, paper towels, pencil, eraser, masking tape, and a water container.
