A Very Special Occasion for St. Casimir's Parish

Dzien Dobry! Mr. & Mrs. Bombardieri,

We are very excited about a scheduled visit from our diocesan Bishop Paul Sobiechowski who will come to bless our new altar that allows me to face the congregation at Mass, the first such event in more than 100 years!

The Bishop will be assisted by the priests of the Northeast Seniorate who will come here to celebrate Corpus Christi (Boże Ciało) on Thursday, June 19th with a Special Mass and procession to four altars, symbolizing the spread of the Gospel to the four corners of the earth.

The celebration will begin at 5 PM Mr. & Mrs. Bombardieri, and we would like to extend to you a personal invitation to attend and share this special event with us. Please Come!

The new free-standing altar was constructed by parishioner Jack Szetela and donated to St. Casimir's by Jack and his wife Judy. It is being used currently as a temporary altar, as authorized by the Bishop, until its blessing on June 19,

A reception and fellowship hour in our Parish Center will follow the Mass.

Sunday School Children Enjoy Easter-Time Activity

Following the celebration of Mass on Palm Sunday, April 16 the ladies of St. Casimir's ANS Society conducted a program of Easter activities at the Parish Center for the children of the Sunday School at the Parish Center. Story and photos of the event are on page 4 of this newsletter.

Carrying statues, crosses, missals, flags and other religious items, the procession begins its journey around the church followed by Fr. Andrzej, the celebrant, carrying the monstrance that contained and displayed the Holy Eucharist, the Bread of Life.

Along the way and at each of the four corners of the church, symbolizing the four corners of the world, the celebrant elevates the Eucharist and chants the phrase "By Thy Holy Resurrection".

When the procession ceremony is completed, the celebrant removes the Holy Eucharist from the monstrance and returns it to the tabernacle on the main altar. He dismisses the procession and begins Mass of the Resurrection.

In Memoriam

Julia J. (Stefanek) (Perry) Magiera, 99, unexpectedly passed away on Tuesday, March 18th, peacefully in her home with loving members of her family by her side. She was the widow of the late Emil J. Magiera, who passed away in 1950.

Julia was born in Turner's Falls, MA on January 10, 1915, a daughter of the late Katherine (Bujak) and Alexander J. Stefanek both born in Poland.

After graduating from high school, Julia worked for several Lowell businesses and retired after 20 years, as an Executive Administrator for the Raytheon Corporation.

She had a way of drawing people to her, ever ready to enjoy a gathering of family and friends. With a welcoming greeting, she made everyone feel like the center of attention. Julia had an endearing smile that made friends and new acquaintances alike feel as if they had known her forever. For many years she was an active member of the Dunstable senior citizens group, and regularly participated in the Chelmsford Senior Day Care Program and was a long-time member of the TOPS program, where she made many warm and caring friendships.

She was a life long member of St. Casimir's Polish National Catholic Church in Lowell, where she sang in the choir and participated in several other church organizations. She was proud of her Polish heritage and spoke and wrote the language fluently. At her passing, Julia was the caretaker of the gold cane, indicating that she was the oldest citizen in Dunstable, MA, her home for more than 30 years. You could often see her in holiday parades with her gold cane, riding and waving to the crowds. With her daughter, Julie Joyce, she attended dog agility trials and made numerous friends, that will deeply miss her warm greetings and encouragement.

Julia is survived by and will be deeply missed by her 4 children, Emil R. Magiera and his wife Donna of No. Chelmsford, Julie Treinis and her husband Andrew of Dunstable, Kathleen Sullivan and her husband James of Midland, MI, and James Magiera and his wife Susan of Mt. Vernon, NH; 8 grandchildren, Cheryl, Pamela, Dickie, Lisa, Elizabeth, Katherine, Seamus, and Patrick; 7 great-grandchildren, Scott, Alicia, Brittany, Abigale, Emily, Anna, and 2 month old Julianna; 1 great-great-grandson, Isiah; and Dusty, her faithful dog of 15 years. She is also survived by her dearest friend of 97 years, Helen Rogers of Pelham, NH., and is also missed and loved by many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her beloved siblings, a brother Edward Stefanek and her sisters, Mary Blazonis and Genevieve McCabe, as well as her dear friend of 95 years Mary Pochlopek.

At Julia's request all services were private. A memorial mass will take place at the convenience of family. It was Julia's request that in lieu of flowers donations be made in her memory to St. Casimir's Polish National Catholic Church, 268 Lakeview Ave, Lowell, MA 01850, or the Chelmsford Senior Center, 75 Groton Road, Chelmsford, MA 01824.

Ceremonial Changes After 100+ Years

For the first time in more than 100 years at St. Casimir, Easter Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated facing the congregation. Fr. Tenuš uses the new temporary altar as approved by Bishop Sobiechowski. The altar will be blessed at the feast of Corpus Christi (Boże Ciało) Mass scheduled for Thursday, June 19th.

Neighborhood Cleanup on May 31

The Centralville Neighborhood Action Group will be hosting a clean-up activity of the Centralville neighborhood on Saturday May 31st, 2014. Several groups have expressed interest in participation including the Boys and Girls Club, Lowell High School, as well as youth leaders from neighborhood schools. This clean-up will be a great way for any person to give back to their community as well.

The clean-up will take about 3 hrs from 9 AM until noon followed by a light bar-b-que lunch for the volunteers at St. Casimir's Parish Center and parking lot with access to bathroom facilities.

One or two people will be assigned to start the charcoal and keep watch over it for safety purposes. The volunteers expected to be on St. Casimir's grounds until about 2:30.

Food and drink for the bar-b-que lunch will be donated by Market Basket and the Coca-Cola Corporation.

"Focus on Youth" Theme of Diocesan United Choirs Music Mini Workshop

The second ED-UC music mini workshop was held on Saturday, March 8, 2014 at St. Casimir's Parish. The purpose of the workshop entitled "Focus on Youth" was to bring members of parish choirs of the diocese together to discuss ways in which to involve all ages, especially the youth, in the music ministry, to share ideas and music to enhance our Masses as well as to renew acquaintances and make new friendships.

Robert Hunt and Pastor Andrzej Tenus

The workshop began with welcome being extended by our pastor, Father Andrzej Tenus and parish co-chairman Robert Hunt.

Children of St. Casimir's School of Christian Living presented three songs, accompanied on guitar by Father Tenus.

The Morning Star Youth orchestra from Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT presented two numbers and then were joined by four Lutnia Choir members to sing

"Jesus Christ, Bread of Life". Leonora Szruba, organist from Norwich, spoke about working with the youth to prepare them for singing at the Easter Sunday Mass.

Junior and Senior Choirs from Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT sang "Jesus Christ, Bread of Life" under the direction of Leonora Szruba, parish organist.

Joey Grieve of St. Casimir's presented a visual presentation focusing on how parishes can encourage their youth to become involved in community activities; relevant to the music workshop, St. Casimir's annual Youth Group Talent Show has provided an excellent opportunity for the church's young people to display their talents, not only as performers, but also team members working together to create a fun-filled community event

A discussion followed with both adults and youth sharing other ideas on how to grow our parishes through the enhancement of music and choir programs.

Neal Narkon, president of ED-UC, spoke about the availability of music scholarships for worthy applicants, noting that four award recipients were in attendance: Leonora Szruba, Maya Chmielewska, Rachel Quirbach, and Joey Grieve.

Karen Sobiechowski of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Manchester, NH, offered suggestions for choosing appropriate music for Mass and mentioned many sources.

Grace before lunch was offered by Father Robert

Fredrickson, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, Webster, MA.

The lunch break provided an opportunity to refresh from the morning's activity and enjoy some social interaction, getting to know one another.

The afternoon session was led by Janice Klimczak, coordinator of the workshop from St. Casimir's, with Karen

Bishop Sobiechowski commenting at the workshop

Bishop Sobiechowski made some final comments about the workshop, the presentations and the discussions as important to the goal of enhancing the role of the church in the community through the use of music. He ended by expressing gratitude to those who attended the workshop; for their entertainment and positive discussions; and thanks to Fr. Tenus and the parishioners of St. Casimir's for hosting the workshop and to the ladies of the parish for supplying the food for brunch, lunch and snacks.

He then called upon Father Christopher Rogalski, pastor of Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT and chaplain of Eastern Diocese-United Choirs to offer the closing prayer.

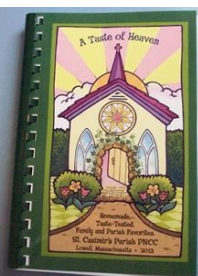

Bishop Paul then offered the benediction after which the workshop was officially called to a close. All those in attendance agreed that the event was worthwhile and provided a sense of accomplishment and spiritual enrichment.

ANS Sponsors Easter SOCL Activities

In keeping with their commitment to the youth of the parish, the women of St. Casimir's ANS Society sponsored a program of Easter activities for the children of the School of Christian Living (SOCL) Sunday School at the Parish Center on Palm Sunday, April 16.

The activity began with a brief class lesson which explained the miracle of Easter and why there is eternal life, presented by ANS President JoAnn Menzia, assisted by Beverly Runowicz.

Next, the children had fun with a craft project that created Easter bunnies from paper tubes under the direction of Phyllis Hunt.

Dzien Dobry! Ms Bozek,

We are very excited about a scheduled visit from our diocesan Bishop Paul Sobiechowski who will come to bless our new altar that allows me to face the congregation at Mass, the first such event in more than 100 years!

The Bishop will be assisted by the priests of the Northeast Seniorate who will come here to celebrate Corpus Christi (Boże Ciało) on Thursday, June 19th with a Special Mass and procession to four altars, symbolizing the spread of the Gospel to the four corners of the earth.

The celebration will begin at 5 PM Ms Bozek, and we would like to extend to you a personal invitation to attend and share this special event with us. Please Come!

The new free-standing altar was constructed by parishioner Jack Szetela and donated to St. Casimir's by Jack and his wife Judy. It is being used currently as a temporary altar, as authorized by the Bishop, until its blessing on June 19,

A reception and fellowship hour in our Parish Center will follow the Mass.

Sunday School Children Enjoy Easter-Time Activity

Following the celebration of Mass on Palm Sunday, April 16 the ladies of St. Casimir's ANS Society conducted a program of Easter activities at the Parish Center for the children of the Sunday School at the Parish Center. Story and photos of the event are on page 4 of this newsletter.

Carrying statues, crosses, missals, flags and other religious items, the procession begins its journey around the church followed by Fr. Andrzej, the celebrant, carrying the monstrance that contained and displayed the Holy Eucharist, the Bread of Life.

Along the way and at each of the four corners of the church, symbolizing the four corners of the world, the celebrant elevates the Eucharist and chants the phrase "By Thy Holy Resurrection".

When the procession ceremony is completed, the celebrant removes the Holy Eucharist from the monstrance and returns it to the tabernacle on the main altar. He dismisses the procession and begins Mass of the Resurrection.

In Memoriam

Julia J. (Stefanek) (Perry) Magiera, 99, unexpectedly passed away on Tuesday, March 18th, peacefully in her home with loving members of her family by her side. She was the widow of the late Emil J. Magiera, who passed away in 1950.

Julia was born in Turner's Falls, MA on January 10, 1915, a daughter of the late Katherine (Bujak) and Alexander J. Stefanek both born in Poland.

After graduating from high school, Julia worked for several Lowell businesses and retired after 20 years, as an Executive Administrator for the Raytheon Corporation.

She had a way of drawing people to her, ever ready to enjoy a gathering of family and friends. With a welcoming greeting, she made everyone feel like the center of attention. Julia had an endearing smile that made friends and new acquaintances alike feel as if they had known her forever. For many years she was an active member of the Dunstable senior citizens group, and regularly participated in the Chelmsford Senior Day Care Program and was a long-time member of the TOPS program, where she made many warm and caring friendships.

She was a life long member of St. Casimir's Polish National Catholic Church in Lowell, where she sang in the choir and participated in several other church organizations. She was proud of her Polish heritage and spoke and wrote the language fluently. At her passing, Julia was the caretaker of the gold cane, indicating that she was the oldest citizen in Dunstable, MA, her home for more than 30 years. You could often see her in holiday parades with her gold cane, riding and waving to the crowds. With her daughter, Julie Joyce, she attended dog agility trials and made numerous friends, that will deeply miss her warm greetings and encouragement.

Julia is survived by and will be deeply missed by her 4 children, Emil R. Magiera and his wife Donna of No. Chelmsford, Julie Treinis and her husband Andrew of Dunstable, Kathleen Sullivan and her husband James of Midland, MI, and James Magiera and his wife Susan of Mt. Vernon, NH; 8 grandchildren, Cheryl, Pamela, Dickie, Lisa, Elizabeth, Katherine, Seamus, and Patrick; 7 great-grandchildren, Scott, Alicia, Brittany, Abigale, Emily, Anna, and 2 month old Julianna; 1 great-great-grandson, Isiah; and Dusty, her faithful dog of 15 years. She is also survived by her dearest friend of 97 years, Helen Rogers of Pelham, NH., and is also missed and loved by many nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her beloved siblings, a brother Edward Stefanek and her sisters, Mary Blazonis and Genevieve McCabe, as well as her dear friend of 95 years Mary Pochlopek.

At Julia's request all services were private. A memorial mass will take place at the convenience of family. It was Julia's request that in lieu of flowers donations be made in her memory to St. Casimir's Polish National Catholic Church, 268 Lakeview Ave, Lowell, MA 01850, or the Chelmsford Senior Center, 75 Groton Road, Chelmsford, MA 01824.

Ceremonial Changes After 100+ Years

For the first time in more than 100 years at St. Casimir, Easter Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated facing the congregation. Fr. Tenuš uses the new temporary altar as approved by Bishop Sobiechowski. The altar will be blessed at the feast of Corpus Christi (Boże Ciało) Mass scheduled for Thursday, June 19th.

Neighborhood Cleanup on May 31

The Centralville Neighborhood Action Group will be hosting a clean-up activity of the Centralville neighborhood on Saturday May 31st, 2014. Several groups have expressed interest in participation including the Boys and Girls Club, Lowell High School, as well as youth leaders from neighborhood schools. This clean-up will be a great way for any person to give back to their community as well.

The clean-up will take about 3 hrs from 9 AM until noon followed by a light bar-b-que lunch for the volunteers at St. Casimir's Parish Center and parking lot with access to bathroom facilities.

One or two people will be assigned to start the charcoal and keep watch over it for safety purposes. The volunteers expected to be on St. Casimir's grounds until about 2:30.

Food and drink for the bar-b-que lunch will be donated by Market Basket and the Coca-Cola Corporation.

"Focus on Youth" Theme of Diocesan United Choirs Music Mini Workshop

The second ED-UC music mini workshop was held on Saturday, March 8, 2014 at St. Casimir's Parish. The purpose of the workshop entitled "Focus on Youth" was to bring members of parish choirs of the diocese together to discuss ways in which to involve all ages, especially the youth, in the music ministry, to share ideas and music to enhance our Masses as well as to renew acquaintances and make new friendships.

Robert Hunt and Pastor Andrzej Tenus

The workshop began with welcome being extended by our pastor, Father Andrzej Tenus and parish co-chairman Robert Hunt.

Children of St. Casimir's School of Christian Living presented three songs, accompanied on guitar by Father Tenus.

The Morning Star Youth orchestra from Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT presented two numbers and then were joined by four Lutnia Choir members to sing

"Jesus Christ, Bread of Life". Leonora Szruba, organist from Norwich, spoke about working with the youth to prepare them for singing at the Easter Sunday Mass.

Junior and Senior Choirs from Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT sang "Jesus Christ, Bread of Life" under the direction of Leonora Szruba, parish organist.

Joey Grieve of St. Casimir's presented a visual presentation focusing on how parishes can encourage their youth to become involved in community activities; relevant to the music workshop, St. Casimir's annual Youth Group Talent Show has provided an excellent opportunity for the church's young people to display their talents, not only as performers, but also team members working together to create a fun-filled community event

A discussion followed with both adults and youth sharing other ideas on how to grow our parishes through the enhancement of music and choir programs.

Neal Narkon, president of ED-UC, spoke about the availability of music scholarships for worthy applicants, noting that four award recipients were in attendance: Leonora Szruba, Maya Chmielewska, Rachel Quirbach, and Joey Grieve.

Karen Sobiechowski of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Manchester, NH, offered suggestions for choosing appropriate music for Mass and mentioned many sources.

Grace before lunch was offered by Father Robert

Fredrickson, pastor of Holy Trinity Parish, Webster, MA.

The lunch break provided an opportunity to refresh from the morning's activity and enjoy some social interaction, getting to know one another.

The afternoon session was led by Janice Klimczak, coordinator of the workshop from St. Casimir's, with Karen

Bishop Sobiechowski commenting at the workshop

Bishop Sobiechowski made some final comments about the workshop, the presentations and the discussions as important to the goal of enhancing the role of the church in the community through the use of music. He ended by expressing gratitude to those who attended the workshop; for their entertainment and positive discussions; and thanks to Fr. Tenus and the parishioners of St. Casimir's for hosting the workshop and to the ladies of the parish for supplying the food for brunch, lunch and snacks.

He then called upon Father Christopher Rogalski, pastor of Divine Providence Parish, Norwich, CT and chaplain of Eastern Diocese-United Choirs to offer the closing prayer.

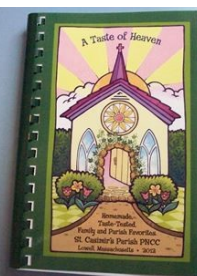

Bishop Paul then offered the benediction after which the workshop was officially called to a close. All those in attendance agreed that the event was worthwhile and provided a sense of accomplishment and spiritual enrichment.
