Friends -

I am writing today, three days before our annual Church Conference. The Church Conference is an opportunity to reflect on the year that has passed, and to dream of the year that is to come. In preparation for church conference, I and the leadership team have been busily assembling all kinds of data. We have looked at the state of our facilities. We have reviewed our staff. We have examined our finances. And we have examined our attendance in worship, classes and on mission teams. But most importantly, we have examined the ways that we have grown in breadth and depth in our discipleship, and the ways that we have reached out into the community in an effort to transform the world in a way that reflects the Gospel Kingdom.

As you have witnessed on Sunday morning, the news isn't all good. We are worshipping fewer people on any given Sunday. This is a multi-layered challenge. People are simply coming to church less often, though they still consider this their church home. Other people have dropped out of church altogether. Either way, the church's mission hasn't changed: we are seeking to make disciples. Therefore, we need to make the Sunday morning experience vital enough to compete against the other things that compete with us on Sunday and we need to find other avenues of making disciples.

In November, I will be holding a number of trainings. One of which is for a worship team. No worship team exists at this time. But, it is critical to develop one, if we are going to improve the quality of our worship experience. I will be looking for people who are interested in creating visual displays as part of worship. People who know Christian music, or musicians will be a great asset on this team. If you have experience in education, you can bring some experience with multi-sensory learning to our brainstorming. I would love to have people who are interested in helping create a new worship service, something low key, like a house church. I would love to have people join who have experience worshipping at other places. The more minds we can gather, the more diversity of ideas, the richer worship will become.

If this interests you, if you have ideas about worship, or if you're willing to educate yourself on the topic, come on November 10, at 7PM to a meeting at the church and let's explore how we can use worship as a vehicle to making disciples.

Blessings - Pastor Suzy

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN NEWS...

"Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the day approaching." Proverbs 10: 24-25 (NSRV)

We were truly blessed to have Judy Schaefer from Trinity Lutheran Church share how the 'Kids Against Hunger' program works. This is a huge volunteer program of packaging food that this community has the opportunity to share in. Pat Gibbs will be sharing with our church family how we can be involved. Our UMW sent a check for $500.00 with Judy for the cause; our mission in action and why we work so hard at keeping funds in our treasury! You may be interested to know, we earned $1,260.00 at our Community 'Yard' Sale effort!

"Dress for Success", Blue Water District's 'Ingathering Project for 2017' is an opportunity for sharing that the whole congregation can participate in. Our UMW budgets to buy shirts and pants. More of these would certainly be appreciated, but you may want to especially consider socks (blue or black), and underwear! Please bring your donations to the back of the sanctuary by Sun., Oct. 8th. They will go with us to the Annual District Meeting on Sat., Oct. 14th.

Our October meeting features our Annual Compassion Pregnancy Shower. This is an opportunity, again, for the whole congregation to participate in. Kathy Harley will be accepting cash donations to purchase new car seats, through the end of October.

This is a wonderful way to provide flowers as a memorial or to honor someone, or celebrate birthdays and anniversaries during the 2016 church year. Please make sure your flower payments are in the office before your scheduled Sunday. You may bring your payment to the office or put it in the offering in an envelope marked "altar flowers". Thanks, Jennifer

Below is a copy of the Altar Flower Calendar for the next few months of 2016. It shows the dates that are available. Call the church office (727-2622) if you would like to reserve a Sunday.

Richmond First United Methodist Church continues to evolve and grow as a worshipping body. We are striving to reimagine what worship can look like, going into the future. The church choir has been struggling to grow and sustain itself. Therefore, for this season, they will be taking a sabbatical. We are hoping to find other types of "special music" to enrich the worship experience. Please prayerfully consider what resources you can offer. Can you sing? Do you play a musical instrument? Do you know people that you would like to invite into worship with their musical gifts? Talk to Randy, or Pastor Suzy if you have ideas.

After many years of service to this congregation, Mark Konwinski will be pursuing other opportunities. We wish him great success.

Team Development:

Pastor Suzy will be conducting a series of meetings to help develop ministry teams. If you are interested in helping bring vitality to any of these ministries, and are willing to give your time, talents and treasures, please come and learn about our vision for the future.

November 8 - 7PM - Hospitality Team - Making our church welcoming to all people.

November 9 - 7PM - Spiritual Formation Team - Taking people from first time visitors to fully devoted disciples of Jesus Christ through study, community and discipleship.

November 10 - 7PM - Worship Team - Finding ways to bring vitality through multi-sensory worship

November 12 - 1PM - Facilities Team - Making our church, parsonage and rental property vital tools in ministry.

November 15 - 7PM - Memorial Team - Preparing for the church that will be our legacy

November 16 - 7PM - Outreach Team - Making our church a vital force for change in the community outside our doors.

November 17 - 7PM - Congregational Care Team - Living in a supportive and praying community with each other.

October 20-21 - Grand Rapids Michigan

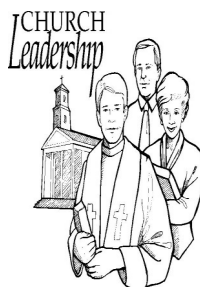

This annual workshop equips churches to reach more people! Pastor Suzy would like to take a team of 3-5 people to experience the powerful worship at Cornerstone Church (UMC) and the life changing teaching of Olu Brown from Impact Church of Atlanta, GA. Impact is one of the fastest growing churches in America. While we cannot do exactly what they do and get the same results, we certainly have a lot we could learn, adapt and integrate here! Hotel expenses will be paid for, you'll just need to provide your own meals. E-mail Pastorsuzyumc@gmail.com if you are interested in coming. We will leave Friday morning and return Saturday night.

Word of God, for the people of God!

On October 15, we will gift our students with a children's Bible during the Children's Message time of the worship service.

Any child who is in third grade or older, and hasn't yet received a Bible from the church, please RSVP to the church office at your earliest convenience. Thank you!

A Leadership Board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct., 17th At 7:00 p.m.
