Soul Work for Healing: Explore Your Animal Energies

Presenter: Deborah S. Mayer

When: Tuesday, May 8, 2018

6:30 PM to 8 PM

We will explore different animal energies to help us see how we perceive the world and how others perceive us. Building awareness of self-presence and the energies of other bodies, emotions and thoughts, we will learn to shift our energies and align ourselves, so that change can happen. Guided interactive play will teach us to choose and shift our whole energy and we can respond with a positive flow to different people, barriers and situations.

We will also learn to create a personal bubble as a conscious response to the energy of others, so that we can enhance and harmonize our spiritual and physical energies.
