FEATHERS IN THE WIND

When I was a very young girl my mother told of a family that kept so much toilet paper their one closet was almost filled with roll upon roll of it.

I thought that was carrying things a little too far until I got married and lived in a house of men instead of women.

Men could care less about cleaning products unless it is something to wipe their greasy hands with after fixing a car. Women are more genteel and know what is important.

I have a "little" problem or fear of running out of toilet paper. We no longer have corn cobs at our disposable nor catalogues like they used in the "good old days."

After having dealt with a plumber most of the month of January I choose not to dispose of anything via the toilet that is not degradable.

I have this "thing" about always having an extra supply of toilet paper on hand in case of emergency.

Do not think you can just come over here and borrow any from me because I will have you sign

Rock it Out and Support MDA Saturday at Millstream

A benefit concert featuring the Noize Junkiez is happening this Saturday, April 7 from 2 p.m. – 7 p.m. at the Millstream Brewing Co. in Amana in support of the MDA Muscle Walk team "Team Caelem."

Enjoy the music, food and beverage as you support this effort to raise $1,500 for Muscular Dystrophy Association research and family support.

It's at the brewery, out of doors if the weather is fine or in the warehouse should it be chilly, Teresa Albert told us. The fun starts at 2 p.m. And this Iowa rock band is sure to bring the fun!

The team, named in honor of a young man living with MD, will be walking May 5 in the

Caelem

North Liberty MDA walk, but Melissa Hinzman and her family wanted to organize an event to kick start the fundraising and so have lined up a local rock favorite, the Noize Junkiez to perform. Free will donations will be taken at the event. Food and beverages will be served.

Easter Weather One of the Books

With temperatures hovering just below 20 degrees Sunday morning, it felt more like Christmas than Easter but area families ignored the temperatures and enjoyed Easter worship services, family dinners and Easter egg hunts.

Nearly 100 children, their parents and grandparents gathered at the Amana Heritage Museum on cold, windy Saturday morning to participate in the annual museum egg hunt organized by the Amana Heritage Society staff and board members. Volunteers Terry Roemig and Amy Jacobson fill the baskets and supervise the fun! Some 200 colored Easter eggs were donated to the hunt by the Amana Meat Shop along with 100 bottles of Millstream Rootbeer from Millstream Brewing Co. and candy and treats from Heritage Society volunteers.

Jon Childers, Amana Heritage Society executive director, says a special "thank you" to "David the Easter Bunny!" (and the Sue Schantz Casper family) who braved the chilly wind to welcome the kids to the museum and stayed on hand for photo

Hello Amana Society Stockholders,

You graciously elected me to serve on the Amana Society board of directors in the past, and I thank you. I've done my best in acting on your behalf and looking out for the best interests of the Amana Society. My term is up this year, and I ask for your continuing support and for your vote. Here are some points for your consideration:

1. I am optimistic about the Amana Society. Yes, we have our challenges as all companies do, and some of our challenges are unique to us reflecting our unique history and origin. However, my optimism derives from the rich resources and opportunities of the Amana Society which we are blessed to have. These include our land, our "Amana" brand, our talented and loyal employees, and our management team. All of these need to be sustained and nurtured, and in doing so, we have a potential limited only by our creativity and ability to execute.

2. One of the most important tasks of a board of directors is to select the leader of the company, and that task is before the Amana Society board of directors this year with John Peterson's announced plan to retire no later than this coming October. I believe my business background and my experience with hiring people can be of real benefit.

3. I've been a businessman for many years, including 25 years as CEO of Stamats, a national media and marketing company. Like John Peterson, I am planning to retire this year. I've still got some good energy in me, and I think I can apply that to the benefit of the Amana Society as a director for the next three years.

And finally, even though I no longer live in Amana, it's still my old home, and I care about it. Thanks for your consideration.

Amana Society Stockholders:

I respectfully seek your support in this year's Board of Directors election. In marking your ballot for me, you will be casting a vote for someone with:

- Broad Business Experience. I have been employed in accounting, budgeting, internal audit, process improvement and government regulatory compliance roles during my 36 years with Rockwell Collins.
- Analytical Thinking Ability. I carefully weigh the facts of every issue, taking into account the cost/benefit impact to the corporation and the people involved (employees, customers, stockholders and/or residents) in order to make a well-informed decision that is in the best interests of the greater good.
- Integrity and Ethics. Professionalism, transparency, confidentiality, respect for every individual, doing the right thing – all are important to me.
- Passion and Commitment. I give 100% to everything I do, and serving as a director is no exception.

Please contact me with your questions or concerns via phone or text message at 319-540-6391, or via email at sjgeiger12@gmail.com. Thank you for placing your confidence in me.

OBITUARY

Louis “Louie” Reinhardt Marz, age 94, formerly of Homestead, IA, died peacefully at his home in Las Cruces, New Mexico, on Saturday evening, November 18, 2017. Celebration of Life Service: 10:00 A.M. Saturday, April 14, 2018, Middle Amana Church, Middle Amana, Iowa. Visitation: 9 – 10:00 A.M. prior to the service. Inurnment will be in the Homestead Cemetery with Military Honors and Masonic Rites. In lieu of flowers the family suggests memorials be directed to the Amana Church Society, the Amana Heritage Society, or the Mesilla Valley Hospice. Kloster Funeral Home, Marengo is assisting the family with arrangements.

Louis was born October 29, 1923 in Homestead, Iowa, the son of John Jacob Marz and Henrietta Kolb Marz. As a boy, he attended the Amana schools. Following graduation in 1941, Louis attended Coe College. He was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1943 where he served as an engineer. He completed civil engineering training at the Virginia Military Institute and was deployed overseas on his birthday in 1944 as part of the 282nd Engineering Combat Battalion. As the war was coming to an end, Louis was wounded from enemy fire while building a bridge at Echternach, Luxemburg in 1945, and went on to receive the Purple Heart for the injury that almost took his life. He along with several hundred other servicemen from the greatest generation made the trip to Washington, D.C. 70 years later, as part of the Cedar Rapids Honor Flight program on September 11, 2011.

Following his return to the states after World War II, Louis completed his education at Iowa State University where he received a bachelor’s degree in mechanical engineering. Louis went on to work at Amana Refrigeration, Inc. as a design engineer his entire working career. He married Dorothy Berger on November 12, 1949. The couple later divorced. Louis married Caroline Brandt on January 16, 1987. The couple made their home in both Homestead, IA and Las Cruces, NM.

Louis’ lifetime passions included being a founding member of the Amana Heritage Society and serving as an elder at the Amana Church. Additionally, he was an active member of the Homestead Welfare Club, a 50-year member of the Masonic Lodge and the 32 degree Scottish Rite. His hobbies included teaching and playing bridge, tennis, crossword puzzles, ISU Cyclone football, traveling and caring for his beloved English Sheepdogs—most recently his “good girl” Roxie.

Following his retirement, Louis volunteered at the Amana Heritage Museum and the Farm and Ranch Museum in Las Cruces.

He is survived by his wife Caroline; sister-in-law Ellen Mae Marz; daughter Mary (Tom) Burgher of East Amana; son, Dr. Mark (Marti) Marz of Cedar Rapids; step-children, Alan Cerwick of San Antonio, TX and Brigitte Cerwick of Coppel, TX; six grandchildren, Laura (Keith) Simmonds, Andrew (Stephanie) Marz, Liesl (Daniel) Yunek, Fritz Burgher, Mackenzie Cerwick and Justin Cerwick; and three great grandchildren, Daniel and Anna Simmonds, and Everett Yunek. Louis was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Helen Dittrich and a brother Fritz Marz.

Arrest Made in Amana March 30

U.S. Marshals arrested Austin Vermace, Kansas, late afternoon Friday, March 30 in the village of Amana.

Iowa County Sheriff Rob Rotter reported April 3, that Vermace was wanted on a “failure to appear” in court, Kansas warrant. The U.S. Marshals office received information that Vermace was in Iowa County and made the arrest in Amana on “main street” late Friday afternoon. Vermace is now back in custody in Kansas, Sheriff Rotter said.

a promissory note that you will return the toilet paper within a two-day minimum or you WILL give up a piece of furniture, child, perhaps even husband if you forget...whatever is the most important to you.

When we were first married my wonderful husband dashed to the Homestead Grocery store and YELLED, “Quick, where is the toilet paper? I left the queen on the throne without any and she is MAD!”

I did not go to the store for a few days because of the embarrassment of it all. (Why I am even telling you about it only goes to show that I am running out of ideas as to what to write.)

The other day I asked this same man if he had remembered to pick up toilet paper. Milk, bread, meat, etc. was not as important.

He got this sheepish look on his face so I knew what the answer was.

Did I lose my temper? Of course not, I just ORDERED him to make a new grocery list which he could fill as soon as possible...the next day. Naturally he had to put toilet paper on the top of the list.

Think about it, what would happen if there was a storm, someone got sick, etc.? This is a vital product.

We can talk some other time as to the quality or if one should unroll the paper from the top or bottom because what is most important is that there is always an adequate supply of toilet paper. I suppose water is more important, but not right now.

Just REMEMBER that if the roll runs out you replace it or else.
