

SUNDAY MORNING meditation

We're like billionaires who're unaware of their wealth and who act like paupers. We're sons of almighty God, members of heaven's family; but often we seem to be un-cared-for orphans. We have an omnipotent heavenly Father who has given us "every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ," (Eph. 1:3). "...His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us by glory and virtue, "by which have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, that through these you may be partakers of the divine nature" (II Pet. 1:3-4). We possess a share of God's own nature. We are what God's Word says we are; we have what God's Word says we have. We're spiritual billionaires. But Satan has succeeded in causing us to disbelieve God's "exceedingly great and precious promises." All for Jesus, Richard
