

Dast, Michael J.

Michael John Dast, son of Clare and MariAnne (Neurath) Dast, was taken to be with his Lord and Savior on Sunday, June 22, 2008 while a resident of Huron Medical Care Facility.

Michael was born in Pigeon on May 3, 1950 and received the Sacrament of Holy Baptism at St. John's Lutheran Church, Berne. He attended St. John's Elementary School and graduated from Laker High School in 1968. He worked for Michigan

Bell and transferred via AT&T to the Denver, Colorado area. He resided there for nearly 30 years and was employed by Group Insurance Analysts.

Michael returned to his family home in Pigeon on April 4 to spend his remaining days. He was preceded in death by his father and is survived by his mother; two sisters, Jacquelynn (Dan) Edwards of Bad Axe and Michelle (Richard) Braunschweig of East Troy, Wisconsin; beloved friend, Shirley Vincent of Golden, Colorado; uncle Herb (Elaine) Neurath and aunt Lois Dast, both of Pigeon; and nieces, nephews, several cousins, and a wide circle of friends.

Since not having lived in the area for many years, Michael requested no visitation. There will be an hour of condolences at 10:00 a.m. followed by a Christian Funeral Service at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, June 27 at St. John's Lutheran Church, Berne. Pastor James A. Gorsegner will be officiating to celebrate Michael's entrance to his heavenly home.

Those desiring a memorial may consider St. John's Church, MLS Foundation, or Heartland Hospice.
