Feedback from the congregation requested.

At the business meeting of Feb. 21st someone mentioned they miss the Sunday morning Bible classes and asked that others think on the possibility of restarting it. It was mentioned it could be announced in the bulletin and also by means of an announcement from the pulpit about getting feedback from the congregation before a decision is made. It was also brought up that the latest Covid-19 guidelines and recommendations be considered before forming an opinion. We ask that you to think on this matter and to give us feedback concerning this. Thanks.
