FROM OUR DAILY BREAD

Billy, a loving and loyal dog, became an internet star in 2020. His owner, Russell, had broken his ankle and was using crutches to walk. Soon the dog also began to hobble when walking with his owner. Concerned, Russell took Billy to the vet, who said there was nothing wrong with him! He ran freely when he was by himself. It turned out that the dog faked a limp when he walked with his owner. That's what you call trying to truly identify with someone's pain!

Coming alongside others is forefront in the apostle Paul's instructions to the church in Rome. He summed up the last five of the Ten Commandments in this way: "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Romans 13:9). We can see the importance of walking with others in verse 8 as well: "Let no debt remain outstanding, except the continuing debt to love one another."

Author Jenny Albers advises: "When someone is broken, don't try to fix them. (You can't.) When someone is hurting, don't attempt to take away their pain. (You can't.) Instead, love them by walking beside them in the hurt. (You can.) Because sometimes what people need is simply to know they aren't alone."

Because Jesus, our Savior, walks alongside us through all our hurt and pain, we know what it means to walk with others.

Son Seekers will be having lunch on Thursday, June 30th at 12:00 pm in the fellowship hall. After lunch, stay for crafting with Carolyn. Sign up at the Welcome Center.
