March Reflection

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life."

Some years ago, I was leading a Bible Study and I was trying to get the Bible Study to talk about grace. I was fresh out of Seminary, filled with all kinds of textbook answers to questions, but I was starting to learn that sometimes textbooks don't translate to real life. It's great to have the knowledge don't get me wrong, but often the way that things are portrayed in textbooks can't quite compare to lived experience. The good Sunday School definition of grace is that "grace is the unmerited love of God freely poured out for the world." I was trying to drive the study to coming to that definition on their own.

I asked the Bible Study to share their experiences of grace. A woman in the study named Alecia, spoke up. She said, "I don't know what you would call this, maybe grace, I'm not sure, but it was one of the greatest experiences of my life." Before she retired, Alecia had worked for a marketing company. She had just been given a promotion, and in order to make a splash she swung for the fences with a proposal. She had used a lot of resources, spent a lot of money, and when it came time to present the final product, her presentation fell flatter than a lead balloon.

Her failure was irrefutable. The project had ended in disaster. She thought back on all the meetings where she had argued for the initiative, the skill with which she answered every objection. This was her baby, her great innovative, surefire idea that couldn't fail.

But the numbers didn't lie. This big career-ending fiasco was hers and hers alone to bear. This dud had her fingerprints all over it. Of course, this would be the end of her time with the company. Where in the world would she get a job after this big public flop?

So, she agonized over what to do next. She decided that the best course of action would be to walk into her boss's office, take the rap, and resign. That way maybe the boss would give her a good letter of recommendation.

First thing the next morning, after a sleepless and tearful night, she walked in and told her supervisor, "Goodbye." I'm going in first thing today and admit to the boss what's happened. Take full responsibility. I hope he doesn't kill me as he fires me. Bad way for me to end with the company, but there is no one else to blame.

"I've fixed it," said her supervisor. "Went in yesterday afternoon and told the boss that we thought the project was a great idea and that you did all your homework. We were all on board, but it didn't work out. Told him about the losses and said it was all my fault."

"You did what! It was my problem. You only signed off on it because I told you it couldn't fail. What did the boss say?" she asked. "Oh, he blew up as expected. Ranted and raved. Told me that he was disappointed in my leadership. Told me that I had better not mess up again. A lot of things like that."

Alecia was blown away. Here was someone who took the blame for her mistake made it right, and he didn't even chew her out. "Who does that?" she asked the Bible Study group. She then said, "When I think of grace, I think of how I felt in that moment."

We have just begun our Lenten journey, we started with the marking of an ashen cross on our foreheads, but the mark of the cross was just a reminder. The season of Lent, forty days and forty nights, that is the challenge. It is a time in which we are intentional about our spiritual formation, a time where we wrestle with our spiritual complacency, and a time in which we confront all those areas of our lives where perhaps we have gotten a little too comfortable with our own sin. Lent certainly misses the bright lights of Advent, and the cheery songs of Christmas, but don't mistake Lent for being a time simply where we are down in the mouth about everything, it is also a season of extraordinary grace.

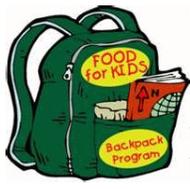

Of course, more often than not when we experience it in life, grace is not as mushy as we sometimes make it sound. Oftentimes the greatest experiences of grace we have in our lives come to us only after wrestling with the incredible fear of what consequences might befall us because of our own actions. I loved hearing Alecia's story because it brought that point home for me. Though I would be remiss if I did not provide an answer to her question, "Who does that?" I wasn't equipped to answer her that night, but I can today because friends, the truth of the matter is, Jesus Christ does that same thing for each of us.

Jesus takes upon himself the fullness of our sin, the chains that we wrap ourselves in, he breaks them, and gives us the opportunity to live lives not constrained by the poison of our sin. Lent is a season when we consider what it means for us that we have received such extraordinary grace. As you move through this season may you confront the sin that exists in your life, and may you experience the profound grace of God.

Grace and Peace,

Zack Christy

The Thursday morning prayer breakfast is back in full swing at 7:00 a.m. at Homefolks Café.

Everyone is welcome! Especially students and parents and grandparents are invited to share a good healthy breakfast before school and food for the soul as you go about your day. A devotion and prayer time is offered for all those that wish to begin their day in fellowship and prayer with other Christians in the community. Miss Bess will drive our church van and will take any middle school and/or high school students that need a ride to school.

BUT watch out for the BUMPS!!! LOL 😊

UMYF: Regular UMYF meetings are “a-happening” at the church, downstairs in the youth room at 6:00 p.m. until 7:30 each Sunday night. We have a great time together eating, studying God's word, doing the “CHURCH CLAP” and of course playing hide and go seek, sardines' style, and other wacky games. We are still planning for the rest of 2023 year's activities with our UMYF - “FUMCY” characters! We have finished up our Bible Scavenger Hunt lessons, and will begin a new study time with skits, games and crafts. Our new lesson and study time as we prepare for Easter is to journey through “LENT.” Our group is growing and we welcome all 6th thru 12th graders!

We have many activities and Mission Possible opportunities for the group in the coming months. We are still trying to keep stocking the blessing box with food and with toiletries. We provided “God is Love” Valentines Bags for 10 shut-ins. Also, we helped and served with the Romans 12 class with the “SOUPER BOWL” lunch on February 12th. Thanks Romans 12 for sharing the experience and the profits from the lunch with us! We have been working hard on some housekeeping projects at the church to get our Youth room organized, we used a little elbow grease to get the “Adventure Van” cleaned up for future use!! We are still planning to do some decorating; bulletin boards and a closet clean out night!

Our group had a wet & wild experience at Jonas Ridge Snow Tubing Park on February 20th. What a day on the slopes and a group building time together. Then came chick-fil-a...YAY!! Many Thanks to Tim Pruitt who went with us and drove the “Adventure Van.” WE LOVE YOU TIM!!!

A future plan is in the works to go back to our Happy Place: Tekoa Foothills!!! and to help with the Easter Egg Hunt on April 8 as well as a movie night. These dates are TBA!! Please be at UMYF to get involved in these activities!!

UMYF is for all middle and high school youths. Please read and follow your FUMCY text for more details.

Breakfast

On Saturday, March 25, we will have our Community Breakfast. Serving times will be from 7:30 - 10:30 a.m. Come join us for a time of fellowship and a delicious all you can eat breakfast buffet. Cost will be by donation. Our profits have gone toward assisting our local community by giving to the Pastor's Discretionary Fund, to the local "Handy Man's Ministry" for helping with minor repairs to homes, and to our youth for retreats and mission trips.

KINGDOM KIDS KORNER

Kingdom Kids is such a happy and busy place to be! The end of this school year is approaching too quickly. How can it be that we have only three more months and there is still so much to do? There are spring photos to be taken; we have measured for graduation gowns and they have been ordered. Those students are already working on the graduation program, and there is still so much teaching and learning to be done! I am so thankful for such a great group of teachers!

We just returned from chapel with Pastor Zack where the children learned about the "good Samaritan" story. Pastor Zack challenged them to remember to be caring and helpful to others. He teaches them on a level that they can understand and respond to and makes it interesting for them. Thank you, Pastor Zack!

Remember, if there are church members who wish to enroll a child, you should do so soon. We are getting quite a bit of interest already from the public.

Ms. Millie

Special Prayer Time for addiction and Substance abuse! I have been contacted by several concerned church members, youth pastors, caring Christian people of our community, prayer warriors from across our area and frightened and concerned parents to address the drug problems and loss of life to addiction in our community as of late! We have lost too many wonderful young people and young adults in our town to the horrors of addiction and the grip of drug abuse. A special prayer time has been designated for Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. for us to stop and pray for all those struggling in any way with drug abuse, addiction, distribution, and the dangers of all substance abuse. We can make a difference by coming together in prayer wherever you are to take a moment to ask the Lord to help and to intervene with those struggling at this time. Please share this with your family and neighbors.

2 Chronicles 7:14 "then if my people will humble themselves and pray and search for me, and turn from their wicked ways, I will hear them from heaven, and will forgive their sins and heal their land!"

PRAYER AGAINST ADDICTION

PRAYER FOR STRENGTH AND FORGIVENESS

Precious Lord,

I come to you in prayer today for salvation. Lord, I'm an addict, but I don't want to be defined by that anymore. I pray for your forgiveness. Please forgive me for this act and cleanse me of all unrighteousness. Take my hand Lord, and deliver me from this habit. Give me the strength to let go and not look back. Help me to avoid friends that will tempt or influence me to give in to this addiction again. Fill me with your grace so that I don't relapse into addiction.

Thank you for the life you have given to me in Christ Jesus. Thank you for setting me free through your Son and our Lord, Jesus Christ,

Amen
