Mini Reunion

...from Dan Pankow

When Jim Shuman's mother died, I wrote to him and mentioned that we have a million memories from our Winans, Sherman, & Hutch High days. I found out that he and his wife Debbie live in Moore, Okla. Karen & I live in a retirement community near the Dallas/Ft Worth, Texas area, a three-hour drive from Moore. We agreed to get together and bring ourselves up to date on 47 yrs of no communication whatsoever. Bob Watson, class of '60, & Kent Ewing, both of whom live in Hutch, agreed to join us.

On Sat May 31st, we all met at Jim & Debbie's beautiful new house. The guys visited while Karen & Debbie went shopping (what else do women do?). That evening, we enjoyed grilled burgers, dogs, and all the fixin's in the Shuman's back yard.

After more conversation, Karen & I and Kent & Bob retired to a nearby La Qunita Inn. The next morning, we met for breakfast at IHOP, and parted ways for now.

We were all amazed at how much we all remember, especially since, at our age, memory is often lacking. Jim even remembered our phone number from back then, and I can't remember my number before my present one!

We have agreed to repeat the visit every year, & hope that a few more of the "ole gang" can join us.

Crusin' Memories:

"Yesterdays News" by Mary Clarkson 6/16/08 H/News

Sandy's Drive In - June 15th, 1968.

40 yrs ago, people cruising Main St. used Sandy's as their turn around point.

Literally hundreds of cars were just passing through the lot 'to see who's there,' Sandy's VP Don Crawford was quoted as saying.

Now the eatery planned to charge admission to the lot on Friday, Saturday & Sunday nights, The News Reported.

A Sandy's employee would stand at the curb, exchanging a ticket for a quarter admission fee. If the person bought something at the drive-in his quarter would be refunded.

'Classmate Highlight' Gary James

The next time you are flipping the channels on your TV and you run across one of those custom car auctions, scan the back ground for a familiar face. Reggie Jackson, of baseball fame, is a custom and classic car dealer. His chief mechanic is our own 1961 Hutchinson High School graduate, Gary James.

Gary regularly attends these functions with Reggie as a consultant. Gary has lived in Sea Side, Calif. since the 70's. Sea Side is just south of the San Francisco - Oakland area. Gary has been associated with Reggie as a consultant, mechanic, and friend for a number of yrs.
