

Social Workers Lead The Way

Make your voice heard to your elected officials! Stand up and speak out on important issues facing the social work profession in today's legislative arena. New professionals and seasoned professionals alike are invited to participate in this important event supporting legislation that impacts our profession and our clients.

Trainings on effective legislative advocacy are available at your Unit or university. Contact NASW-FL at 1-800-352-6279 to schedule.
