- This course allowed us to critically analyze moments in history and apply it to current politics. This is a necessary skill in today's workplace and has definitely made me more prepared for professional life.
- I really enjoy Dr. Sun in this class! It is a lot of challenging material to grasp but he does a good job explaining and telling us what he expects of us in this class.
- Amazing professor, easily one of my favorites. He gave me opportunities outside of class which I will always be thankful for!
- Dr. Sun is by far and away the most exceptional professor I have had at this university. The first time I took one of his classes I was amazed at how well he could explain things to me in a way i could understand. He is always willing to work with his students on anything that is bothering them and is happy to sit down and have a casual chat too. Dr. Sun is my favorite professor I have ever had.
- Professor Sun teaches East Asian politics in an easy to understand manner while using current and historical events to explain ideas.
- I honestly had no idea what to expect when going into this course, and I am glad to say that I have thoroughly enjoyed it! Dr. Sun is an amazing professor and truly cares about his students succeeding, and gaining knowledge. I would strongly recommend this course to everyone, and recommend Dr. Sun as a professor of any course.
