

Ms. Rhodora G. Icaranom is a former Revenue District Officer (RDO) of the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Her tax experience was mostly spent in the Financial District Makati where she was assigned as Asst. Revenue District Officer for almost nine years. She had a one year stint in the Large Taxpayers' Division as Head of the Banks and Financial Intermediaries. In her career with the tax authority she received a distinguished award on the nationwide BIR search for Outstanding Group Supervisor-Centennial Year during the BIR's Centennial Celebration in 2004 for her consistent exemplary performance in Audit and Tax Collection being the Head of the Special Task Force in Manila Region.

Being a member of the BIR Pool of Speakers, she was a regular lecturer of BIR in various tax topics usually focused on updates. At the same time, she is an accredited PICPA speaker in the the PICPA National office and various regions. She is also a former professor of Accounting at the De La Salle University.

During her years of tax service in the government, she attended various trainings held by BIR, some of which were sponsored by Germany, Japan, US and by the big Auditing Firms. In November 2012, she was sent to a month-long training and conference for International Taxation on a Senior Executive Program in Tokyo, Japan sponsored by JICA. Subsequently in October 2015, she also represented BIR for the International Taxation on Financial Instruments in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia sponsored by Malaysian Internal Revenue Authority and International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation IBFD of London. Part of her Tax-Learning Journey is her participation in most of tax related forum and conferences held by PICPA Metro Manila in several countries since 2008.

Ms. Icaranom is a Cum Laude graduate of Divine Word University of Tacloban City who finished her Masters in Business Administration with Distinction at the International Academy of Management and Economics. She is a very active member of the Philippine Institute of Certified Public Accountants, who served as Vice-President for Government sector and Senior Director in the PICPA National Board in 2014-2015, Vice-President for Operations and Senior Director in the National Board, 2013-2014, a Regional Sectoral Director for Metro Manila in the National Board in 2012-2013, a former Chairman of the Metro Manila Regional Council in 2013-2014 and also a Chapter President of Western Metro Manila in 2008 when the chapter garnered the Hall of Fame Award. Last year, during the 72nd Annual National Convention of PICPA, she was awarded the "Outstanding PICPA" member for 2017 at the Philippine International Convention (PICC).