2023 Programs

Jan. 30

Then and Now

Presentation by Guild Members

Regina Scott Brooks is planning our programs for 2023. The next newsletter will feature our scheduled meetings. Look forward to speakers, workshops, and a guild project.

Hello everyone, I have been furiously investigating topics and working on securing speakers for our 2023 program calendar. I do not have any contracts signed yet so that is why I only have the month of January listed above. I want to assure you that I have been in contact with many speakers, and it is only the holiday season. I suspect, that has caused our communications to be slow.

We have 11 months of programs in our guild year. I have tentatively 8 programs planned with two I am waiting to hear back from.

Again, I ask if you now of a speaker or teacher you would like to see present at the guild, please forward me their name. By our January newsletter I hope to have signed contract in hand and can better flesh out our calendar.

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays everyone!

Regina Scott Brooks

There is no guild meeting in December. The Zoom link will be published next month for members who are current with dues for 2023. Enjoy your holidays!

New/renewing membership form on page 8
Please bring to the January 30 meeting, or mail by February 28.
Dues are $30/year.

Editor's Note:

A report of this year's activity will be printed in the January newsletter. A new year is beginning...time to get our creative thoughts going!

At our holiday party, Jim thanked everyone for their loyalty to Sew 'n Save. He reminded us of the opportunity to make use of the classroom for any community service or other projects. Members may contact the store regarding availability of the room. It can be set up for a group to create pillowcases or to introduce a group of young people to the art of sewing. He added that they have donated fabrics available.

Lighthouse Legacies 2023

October 7–8, 2023

As we begin the new year and continue to plan our quilt show, the need is great to have everyone get involved. The show committee chairs will be asking for volunteers to participate. Please try to offer whatever you can in the way of helping out!

Most of the crayons have been handed out. Have fun with the challenge as you create a little quilt to enter. Contact Barbara Vallone if you have questions. She will keep us posted.

It isn't too late to get those challenge quilts started. Do we dream of dresden plates yet?

I n Case You Missed I t

You missed a really, really good time at the guild holiday party. Special thanks to Ginger Wanserski, Cathy Rolfson, Autumn Latimore, Judy Martin, Sue Causey, Yvonne Parks, Kitty Friend and Jackie Mekemson who organized, decorated, quilted, brought door prizes and kept the holiday spirit alive throughout the evening. Our entertainment was over-the-top with a special rendition of The Twelve Days of Christmas.

As discussed at our last guild meeting, we will meet at the church and continue on Zoom for those members unable to attend in person. Good news is that we are allowed to serve snacks at our meetings. Hospitality Chair Autumn Latimore will inform you of her ideas in January.

Keep informed by reading your newsletter. If you have any questions or concerns, call me.

Pat Henningfeld

Congratulations to Nancy
Larsen who won the raffle
quilt
