

Kenny Pugh

I am a Certified Life Coach and Business Consultant. I leverage my expertise to help my clients build successful lives and businesses.

I have over 19 years of business experience primarily in consulting. I have worked with many of the world's top companies including Accenture, Chase Bank, Wells Fargo, Bank of America, SunTrust, LendingTree.com, Microsoft HomeAdvisor, Wachovia, Washington Mutual, AT&T and a number of others.

I have assisted countless clients realize their goals of starting businesses, improving their personal finances and creating healthier relationships. My specialized background has afforded me opportunities to appear on Headline News (HLN), write for BlackEnterprise.com, speak at The Potter's House (Bishop T.D. Jakes) and be featured on a number of national radio broadcasts including the Tom Joyner Morning Show and NPR.

My unique strategies have equipped thousands to experience success in business, finances and relationships. My clients include corporate executives, aspiring and established entrepreneurs, among many others.

I graduated from The Ohio State University with a degree in Industrial & Systems Engineering.

Twitter - <http://twitter.com/mrkennypugh>

Personal Blog/Website - <http://www.kennypugh.com>

Facebook - My Facebook Page