

Jesus gave Himself for us so that all the rights and privileges He earned might be ours also: His heart yearns that we share His glory. It was all for us! We have no right to heaven in ourselves, but in Him. That's for the best because our final glory doesn't depend on the perfection of our performance, but on His. All of our rights are ours in Christ. If we're pardoned, it is through his blood; if we're justified, it is through his righteousness; if we're sanctified, it is because God has made Him our sanctification (1 Cor. 1:30). If we shall be kept from falling, it will be because we're preserved in Christ Jesus; and if we're perfected at the last, it will be because we're already complete in him (Col. 2:10). Paul declared: "All things are yours, for ye are Christ's and Christ is God's" (1 Cor. 3:22-23). All for Jesus, Richard
