ST. AUGUSTINE'S / SAINT LAWRENCE O'TOOLE: 2021 CONTRIBUTION ENVELOPES and special collection envelopes for (PAP parishioners) are available for pick up at the church entrance. Please remember to include your name and donation amount on the envelopes to ensure proper credit. Contact the parish office if a box has not been assigned to you and you wish to receive envelopes, or if there are any changes required to your information.

I would like to say THANK YOU most sincerely for the good wishes, prayers, Christmas cards and generous gifts. I am truly appreciative of your kindness. To all who serve in a ministry or on committees, a huge THANK YOU for all your additional efforts towards our Christmas celebrations, in whichever ministry you are involved.

Fr. Angus Johnston

If you, or someone you know, is interested in exploring the possibility of becoming a member of our Catholic faith community, then RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) may be for you! However you come, our parish community welcomes you! You may already have a strong relationship with God, or you may be seeking such a relationship. You may have had some connection with the Catholic Church or other faith traditions, or you may be seeking a new relationship. RCIA invites you to begin a journey of faith with a group of Catholics who are members of this parish community, and with other men/women who are exploring whether the Catholic faith is right for them. The people of Queen of All Saints offer you support in your search for a deeper relationship with God lived out through the Catholic church. Contact the parish office at 857-4223 if you are interested in more information.

The End is Nigh of an Era: Exploring the Book of Revelations, Part 2

A deeper understanding of the Book of Revelations led to more questions: What is the significance to the numbers found in Revelations? Where does forgiveness enter the equation? So, why don't you join us for Part 2 of our exploration of that final book of Scripture? Dr. Fiona Black and Dr. Andrew Wilson will lead this virtual session on Tuesday, January 19th from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. as they take some time to answer your questions from the last session and dig a little deeper into the end of the world images we see in these passages. Register with Ellen by Monday, January 18th and you will be sent the Zoom link to 'link' into the evening.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES from various parishes of the English Deanery will gather virtually with Archbishop Valéry Vienneau and the other young people who are preparing for Confirmation on Sunday, January 24th, 2021 from 2:00 – 3:30 p.m.

Exploring our Faith

EPIPHANY: SEASON OF REVELATION

From a liturgical point of view, each year the Christmas Season begins at sunset on Christmas Eve and ends at sundown on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord which is Sunday, January 10th this year. (Don't throw out your Christmas tree before then, or I'll haunt you worse than the ghost of Jacob Marley haunted his old business partner, Scrooge!). Getting back to liturgy, we could subdivide the Christmas Season into two seasons.

The first division is Christmas, the Season of Peace, and would include the Solemnity of Christmas right up to the night before Epiphany. In some countries the Feast of Epiphany is still traditionally celebrated on January 6th regardless of what day of the week January 6th falls on. From Christmas Day until January 6th, we have 12 days, hence the expression "the 12 Days of Christmas" or "Twelfth Night". We call that a "fixed" feast. Christmas is a "fixed" feast as it is always celebrated on December 25th no matter what day of the week the 25th falls on. (Easter, on the other hand, is a "movable" feast which means it is not celebrated on the same calendar day each year but "moves" according to the lunar calendar). While some countries, like Greece and Poland, continue to celebrate Epiphany on January 6th each year, as a "fixed" feast, most countries, including Canada have long since moved the celebration of Epiphany to a Sunday (Sunday, January 3rd this year).

Now we get to our second division within the larger Christmas Season, Epiphany, the Season of Revelation. This season unfolds from the Feast (really a solemnity) of Epiphany (Sunday, January 3rd) until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, also on a Sunday (Sunday, January 10th). Epiphany, as you Child bringing their gifts and acknowledging Jesus as know, celebrates the visit of Wise Men to the Christ the light to the nations. The word "epiphany" has its origin in Greek meaning: an appearance, a manifestation, a revelation, a showing, an uncovering. What was revealed in Jesus is that he is the light, to not only the Jews, but also to the non-Jews (Gentiles); in other words, he is the Light of the World.

Back in 2002, St. Pope John Paul II, invited us to pray the rosary a little differently. He introduced us to another set of mysteries of the rosary, although the idea was hatch back in 1957. Along with the traditional mysteries (Joyful, Sorrowful, Glorious), Pope John Paul invited us to pray the Luminous Mysteries as well. He felt, and I agree, that without the Luminous Mysteries, the rosary is without any reference to Jesus' adult ministry. (The Joyful deal with Jesus up until he was 12. The Sorrowful focus on Jesus' last 24 hours of earthly life. The Glorious concentrate on Jesus' post-resurrection life). The luminous mysteries are about Jesus' adult life and his ministry (the baptism in the Jordan, the wedding feast at Cana, the proclamation of the Kingdom, the Transfiguration, the Eucharist). The luminous mysteries are well-named. These five pivotal moments in the life of Jesus really do shed light on the truth of who Jesus was and continues to be for us.

In the Incarnation, the coming of God in the flesh of Jesus, the lid is blown off the pot, and we get to see inside. We get to see the face of God. Moreover, each time we look into the face of another human being, the face of God is revealed anew. The light that never stops shining, the light that scatters the darkest realities, is a light that came to us at Christmas and never left us. Let's live in the light. It's Epiphany all year round.

Fr. Phil

Our church must be disinfected following every liturgy; there must be a person checking people in and having them answer the Covid-19 questions; there also needs to be someone just inside the door supplying all in attendance with hand sanitizer; and finally, there must be volunteers inside the church escorting people to their seats in a manner that respects social distancing. If you would like to help with any of these new ministries, please contact the parish office at 857-4223.
