

AUGUSTA
UNIVERSITY

REAL-WORLD LEARNING
FOR REAL LIFE

YOU HAVE BIG DREAMS. LET'S MAKE THEM REAL.

You might already know Augusta University for our top-ranked health science programs. But you might not know that we're also a multifaceted research university, offering undergraduate degrees in the arts, humanities, computer science, education, media, business, and much more. No matter which major you choose, at Augusta you'll learn as much in the real world as in the classroom.

Education for

- teachers
- coders
- innovators
- oncologists
- journalists
- optimists
- today
- tomorrow
- life

Our undergraduate programs not only expand your knowledge and inspire your creativity. They also empower you to put your education into practice. You have the kind of meaningful professional and personal experiences that give you genuine confidence in your capabilities—and make employers and graduate schools take notice.

When you enroll at Augusta, you join the welcoming, spirited campus community that we call JagNation—where you build lasting relationships that truly change your life. You work closely with world-class faculty members who care deeply about your success. You live and learn with fellow students who share your curiosity and ambition—and become great friends. You thrive in the energizing social and cultural life on campus and in Augusta, which is Georgia's second-largest city.

And at Augusta University, you can graduate in less time—and at a lower cost—than at many other schools.

CAMPUS LIFE AT AUGUSTA UNIVERSITY

When you enroll at Augusta, you join JagNation—a community small enough to feel like a family, yet big enough to create exciting new challenges.

Thanks to our just-right size, you can not only join student organizations, you can lead them. Working closely with fellow students and our administration, you make a significant difference on our campus as you discover interests and talents you might not know you have.

The Jaguar Production Crew (better known as The CREW), a student-run organization, frequently hosts free events. Jaguar athletic teams make us proud. Active fraternities and sororities build enduring social networks. The famed Maxwell Theater provides countless opportunities for performers, artists, and musicians at all skill levels. And those are only a few examples.

Augusta University is home to over 170 clubs and organizations focused on academic and professional interests, civic engagement, student government, cultural and religious life, support and advocacy, the arts, athletics, and much more. If you don't find the group you're looking for, the Office of Student Life & Engagement can help you start it.

Pick from over 170 clubs and organizations, or start and lead your own.

At Augusta University, your college experience extends far beyond the classroom or lab. Here, you'll meet extraordinary people, find your passions, and enjoy every minute.

For more information, see augusta.edu/student-life.

THE AUGUSTA ADVANTAGE

As you immerse in the university's rich intellectual, cultural, and social life, you can also explore energetic and historic Augusta, nestled on the Southern bank of the beautiful Savannah River.

For year-round excitement and home-town warmth, Augusta is hard to beat. Locally owned shops mingle with cutting-edge art galleries, live music venues, restaurants, and theaters. Popular hangouts welcome longtime residents and first-time visitors. High tech blends with nature, as the Georgia Cyber Center and innovative start-ups look out onto gorgeous lakes and trails. And Augusta's the home of world-class sporting events, including The Masters, a globally renowned golf tournament. The South's "Garden City," Augusta is a great place to be at any time of your life—but especially as a student. Because in this up-and-coming yet down-to-earth city, possibilities become realities every day.

Did you know that Augusta is the second-largest city in Georgia?

A great university and a great city for veterans

In 2021, the Military Times named Augusta University one of the top colleges for service members and veterans, a distinction we've earned consistently over the years.

In 2020, Augusta was named one of the "Best Cities for New Veterans" in the U.S. Rankings are based on veteran income and employment, overall affordability, proximity and quality of VA healthcare, and cultural and social opportunities.

(From colleges.militarytimes.com and Augusta Chronicle, November 10, 2020)

ON-CAMPUS LIVING

Through the Office of Housing & Residence Life, you'll find a variety of living environments in both single- and double-occupancy rooms, studios, and apartments. To make your Augusta education even more immersive, we offer Living-Learning Communities (LLCs), which allow you to live and attend classes with other students who have declared a major similar to yours.

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU

Advising, support, and mentoring

Your success is our top priority. To help you get started, our Office of First and Second Year Experiences helps ensure that you find your footing, make friends, and move effectively into and through your program.

Throughout your Augusta education, you can access a wide array of resources, including:

- academic advising and coaching
- the writing center
- counseling and psychological services
- health services and wellness programs
- testing and disability services
- career planning and preparation
- assistance with time management, test preparation, study skills, and more.

Our students also develop close mentoring relationships with Augusta University faculty members. These leading scholars, researchers, and professionals work with you individually—during and outside of class—to discuss your ideas, further your research, or provide extra help.

At Augusta, you can set your sights high, knowing our entire community is behind and beside you all the way.

We surround you with expert advising and extensive support from your first day on campus through graduation and beyond.

Career Services

At Augusta University, we want to make sure you achieve your goals after you graduate. The Office of Career Services is here for you, whether you're looking to start a new career or enroll in graduate or professional school—or if you're still figuring it all out.

From career assessment and counseling to job listings and employer contacts, to assistance with applications and interviews, we help you with the big picture, the little details, and everything in between.

Visit augusta.edu/careerservices for more information.

The Career Services office was very helpful throughout the entire medical school admissions process. Along with being incredibly enthusiastic and invested in my success, they provided guidance and very personalized feedback. I encourage all students at Augusta University to take advantage of Career Services!

–Zachary C., Medical College of Georgia Class of 2024

Career Services helped me prepare well for my job interview. They really made me think through the questions that my future employers asked.

–Callie P., Nursing Major, Registered Nurse at Piedmont Athens Regional Cardiology Unit

Real-world experience enhances your in-class learning and makes you much more attractive to employers.

Internships

Career Services, your college, and your department can all help you find internships that let you apply your knowledge sooner—and make important connections for your future career.

Civic engagement

Augusta students jump at the chance to use their education to help others. Through the Office of Student Life & Engagement, you can find opportunities to apply your academic experience to serve the larger community.

Recent programs include:

- Voter registration drives
- Martin Luther King, Jr. Days of Service Project
- Valentine's Day Goody Bag Project
- Random Acts of Kindness Week
- Homecoming Coin Wars Project
- 1st Amendment Series
- Days of Service

Our Student Leadership Program helps you sharpen critical skills for professional and personal success.

Combining degree programs to make a bigger difference

For Hull College of Business graduate Jomari Jackson, success is less about money and status, and more about what he can do for the larger community. Rather than stepping straight onto the corporate ladder, he hopes to attend the Dental College of Georgia in fall 2022.

His Bachelor of Business Administration degree, with a concentration in healthcare management, will empower him to serve his community as a dentist and as a business leader in the healthcare field.

Because Jomari has always seen service as an essential part of education and life, he worked with many organizations while pursuing his degree, including Doctors Without Borders, Augusta University Red Cross, the AU Dental Club, and the Boys & Girls Clubs.

Jomari advises all Augusta students to get involved in campus and community activities. "You never know when the opportunity of your life may come your way," he says. "So be prepared and accept new challenges."

Hull College of Business's internship program helped me find the right fit. I was able to work for a company with flexible hours and experience the wholesale distribution industry. It was great!

—Jacob G., Hull College of Business graduate

By gaining this important internship, knowledge, experience, and being involved with these professionals, I'm one step closer to achieving my goal of helping business owners leverage proven, data-driven results online.

—Kendric M., Marketing Major, Search Specialist Intern, Powerserve

JAGUAR ATHLETICS

The Augusta University Jaguars compete in both NCAA Division I and Division II athletics. We have one of the best collegiate golf programs in the nation, with both the men's and women's teams competing at the Division I level. Our Division II teams include volleyball, baseball, softball, cross country, basketball, tennis, and track and field.

At Augusta University, you can also Bring Your A Game and show your JagNation spirit by joining our Spirit Squads or the Jaguar Pep Band.

JAG NATION

NEXT-LEVEL LEARNING

At Augusta, you find many pathways to pursue your curiosity and strengthen your post-graduation prospects.

HONORS PROGRAM

If you're looking to take your undergraduate education to the next level, we invite you to apply to Augusta's Honors Program, which offers unmatched advantages, including:

- smaller classes that help develop writing, speaking, and presentation skills
- enhanced opportunities to engage in research, scholarship, and creative activity
- preparation for graduate and professional school through a supervised and mentored thesis project
- Honors graduate designation on both your diploma and your transcript
- travel opportunities to local, state, regional, and national Honors conferences
- 24/7 access to the Honors space in the Quad Wall Building
- specialized academic advising
- priority registration privileges

To learn more, visit augusta.edu/honors.

STUDY ABROAD

Your education changes more than your own life—it can also change the world. No matter which field you work in, your ideas and actions ripple outward into larger local, national, and international communities.

Our Study Abroad and Study Away programs help you grow as a culturally informed and inspired professional. We offer a variety of international and domestic experiences to help you delve more deeply into your work—and gain new perspectives on yourself and the world. Augusta students have recently traveled to Jamaica, Greece, Italy, and Tanzania, as well as New York City, the Deep South, West Virginia, and other national and international locales.

Programs change every year, so visit the Study Abroad office or website for updated information. You're sure to find an opportunity that not only fits your interests, but also challenges you in ways you might not have thought possible.

See augusta.edu/studyabroad for details.

CENTER FOR UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

As a comprehensive research university, we believe collaborative research and scholarly activity should be a central part of every undergraduate's experience. The Center for Undergraduate Research and Scholarship (CURS) empowers you to do hands-on work in your field and contribute new knowledge to your academic discipline. This exceptional opportunity is open to all students in all majors.

Programs and offerings include:

- research grants and fellowship opportunities
- matching student and faculty researchers
- a monthly Student Research Series
- professional development workshops
- the Summer Scholars Program
- the Student Research and Fine Arts Conference

Visit augusta.edu/curs to learn more.

Through daily work in my lab, I learned about the importance of efficient and effective communication, and how to work with experimental results, both expected and unexpected. The technical skills and concepts that I have learned through CURS helped me with a variety of upper-level biology classes that I have since taken.

—Hisham K., Cell and Molecular Biology Major

Being invited and able to present my work at the 66th Annual Meeting of the Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry in Chicago was an amazing opportunity that would not have been possible without the suggestion of my adviser and the continuous support of the CURS Office.

—Kit J., Psychology Major

I'm so grateful to have had the opportunity to conduct research with my mentor through CURS this summer. I stepped out of my comfort zone, and I feel I have grown exponentially through this experience.

—Jenn J., Special Education Major
