- Minutes of 01Dec17 meeting read by Bill Hubble. Minutes were adopted by John McNally.

Financials

- Tim Hollerbaum gave us our current balance $60,279.31 and this was adopted by Caleb Klotz.

Old Business

- John McNally priced out the new "You are Here" sign stands and they will cost about $900.00 to complete them for each trail intersection.
- Spanco's new metal roof has been installed.
- Calling Lakes Cruisers purchased a membership from Cupar Snowmobile Club.
- The club is watching for a used drag to come up for sale.
- Ski hill to move the buildings that were blocking our trail.
- The new "You are Here" signs will cost about $80.00 a piece.
- Caleb is going to check with Weyburn club to see where they get their painted trail markers from.
- Tim will GPS our trails

Snow Report

- Jenna will continue to complete our snow report
- We have been questioned as to why the trails are not marked and groomed.

PWoS (Prairie Women on Snowmobiles)

- Calling Lakes Cruisers hosted a coffee and muffin event at "The Fort" in Fort Qu'Appelle. The club donated $1500.00 to them and received a thank you card from them.

Shelters

- Advanced Electrical Agencies donated a new led outside yard light for Spanco's. We still need to get a bracket made and get this light installed. Tim Hollerbaum will take care of this.
- Rooster's reno's are being well received. We will be installing a new firepit there.

New Business

- It was decided that it is too late in the season to start marking and grooming trails.
- Nothing new to report on the shelters.
- This will be the last meeting of the year.
- Scott Yari will continue doing our financials they will have their paralegal take care of your corporate registry and the club minute book.
- Caleb Klotz asked how much we made of the sled raffle and John McNally advised he does not have that information yet.

Meeting was adjourned at 20:05
