Step into the Shell Café, a slice of Pismo Beach history, one of the longest operating restaurants on the Central Coast. On Price Street (the original El Camino Real), our history-rich midway point between Los Angeles and San Francisco, travelers and celebrities found this restaurant a perfect place to relax and dine, and to view the ocean on their coastal journeys. Back in 1924, our hamburgers were under a dime and omelets were two for a quarter!

The Shell Café's commitment to quality and priority to provide the best experience to our visitors remains our number one goal.
