Eye of the Hawk

It's just fine

Brrr, it's cold outside. As I write this my work called a snow day and Perfect North suspended operations because it's too cold to ski (what?! I think the weather is just fine. The Boyne trip is this weekend and Telluride is less than two weeks away. Park City and Snowshoe are ready to go (we still have a little bit of room on the Snowshoe trip). And Mt Bachelor is right around the corner. If you haven't been out yet, get out there and get started! The conditions are better than they have been in the past few years. My wife and I are out at Perfect North or Mad River every weekend so if you would like to take a day trip to either one of these places feel free to join us. I try to put a note on the web every weekend but sometimes in my enthusiasm I neglect to do so. Please come join us at our monthly meeting at Tropics, 580 Lincoln Park Blvd Dayton, OH 45429 (937) 293-8800 on Jan 14th beginning at 6:30! This month we have some folks from Perfect North who are going to tell us a little bit about their resort (and possibly hand out some freebies as well). Hope to see you out on the slopes!

SNOWSHOE, WV

Only a six hour drive from Dayton in neighboring West Virginia, Snowshoe is one of the region's premier ski destinations. Voted as one of the Mid-Atlantic's top 10 winter sports venues the resort makes up 244 acres in total, which includes the Snowshoe Mountain and Silver Creek areas; the mountains have a total of 60 slopes and trails. Two trails, Cupp Run and Shay's Revenge, have a 1,500 foot vertical drop, the highest in the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic. The mountain summit receives an average of 180 inches of snowfall each winter. If you can't afford the expense of a Western trip but want to ski on some Western-style slopes then Showshoe is for you! The trip will start the morning of Sunday Feb 9th which will be our travel day. We'll ski from Monday the 10th through the early afternoon of Friday the 14th and return Friday afternoon/evening. As of this writing cost breakdown is thus; standard rate is $595.00 and military rate is $535.00. This includes 5-day lift ticket and 5 nights of lodging in double occupancy condos. I need 10 people to make this work, I have 6 signed up.
