Vol. 6 No. 4 ~ Winter 2021

Created from a Breyer Buckshot (yep, really!) in 1994 by Michelle Belisle, this portrait model of dun Norwegian Dole coldblood trotting racehorse Atom Vinter was photographed one epic snow day by owner Ardith Carlton, who laid down in a trench dug in the snow to get this shot of the furry-fetlocked fellow.

A Word to the Fore: Progress, Step By Step

What a whirlwind of a while it's been between our early Autumn issue and this Winter one!

Not knowing how different life would become with our then-impending move from northern Texas to the Northwoods of Wisconsin, last issue we'd announced an expected hiatus until the Summer 2022 issue. Life indeed has taken some acrobatic twists after our move--but we love doing the Re-View and want to avoid having a hole in our coverage of the Vintage Custom scene if we can help it...sooo, here we are again, without having missed an issue! The Spring issue will follow at the end of April, and then we'll be back on schedule with the Summer issue at the end of June.

This "Word to the Fore" is being pecked out in the Model Animal Hobby History Archive room of the 1920-built abode we've come to call Man o' War Manor, situated by the historic Iron Horse Trail in Hurley, Wis., and soon to be home of the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center & Museum. Renovation of the main building is in full swing now, so we're living pretty bare-bones until it's finished, and are looking forward so much to finally unpacking our household and a whooooo lot of model horses! We inventoried the horses after getting here, taking a look at each and then re-wrapping and writing down which horses are in what boxes. Not much longer to go until they can get out of those boxes for good!

That said, moving up here--did I mention it took two trips from Texas in September? There was too much to fit in our 26-foot U-Haul, so my awesome brother drove the rest up in a 20-footer the next week!--and buying Man o' War Manor and having the renovation done has us pretty much running on fumes at the moment. We may need to let some horses go to help buy display cases for the rest, and we'd like to get the enclosed breezeway and second building renovated too down the line to expand the Museum. Step by step...!

In the meantime, we're happy to announce that Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress Live III will be held October 1 at the spacious Iron County Memorial Building in Hurley, Wis.! Watch for more details soon, possibly in the next issue.

All six quarterly legs of the VCMEC 2020-21 Online World Championships have been judged now. This issue features the results of Leg 5, with our thanks to judge Kathy Wells! Kathy judged at the very first live show I ever attended, Western New York Regionals 1985, so having her judge here was a special thrill! Watch for the Leg 6 results next time, and then the series' aggregate results will be in the Summer issue.

Unlike the previous two editions of the series, the 2020-21 edition does not have World Champion and Reserve World Champion title ribbons for each class. Some folks have said that they'd really like that to continue, though, and we sure would, too--so we're thinking about the possibility of letting entrants order them for the cost of the ribbons and postage.

We're currently doing the monster-huge job of determining the World Champion and Reserve World Champion for each class by averages in the aggregate results. If we were to have class World Champion and Reserve World Champion ribbons made, we'd likely be contacting entrants before the aggregate results are released in June and asking something like,

"You have 16 World Champions and 12 Reserve World Champions--would you like to order title ribbons for $X and postage?" Payment would be needed before we put in the order for the ribbons. Be thinking about if this is something you'd like for your star horses that win those hard-earned titles!

Some excitement that happened during our down time was the October auction of vintage customs from the estate of Wisconsin hobbyist Cindy Peltier, who'd passed away at age 58 in December 2020. Kindra Rader-Garcia organized the auction for Cindy's husband, Tim, holding it on Facebook with a photocopied auction catalog available by mail for those who sent a self-addressed stamped envelope. You'll find the results in this issue's Fair Market Values section!

October also brought the sad news that Simone Smiljanic, one of the founders of the model horse hobby, passed away at age 70 the morning of Oct. 29. She was laid to rest on Feb. 25; as her husband, Bill, shared with a video on her Facebook page the next day, "Friday, February 25th, 2022, we sailed from Bequia to Mayreau, near Saline Beach, Simone's favorite spot in the Carribean, for a final goodbye. Bill descended with her ashes (in a biodegradable box, adorned with seashells) to a bed of sea grass. One of Simone's favorite cats, Scooter, passed a few weeks before Simone & Bill put Scooter's ashes in with Simone, as they went to their final rest."

We're so grateful to Simone, not only for her role in helping establish the hobby, but also for the four early Kathleen Maestas repaints--three Hagen-Renaker DW Two Bits and a Hagen-Renaker DW Swaps, all repainted to be blue roan spotted-blanket Appaloosas--that Simone sold us for the VCMEC Museum, even throwing in a western saddle by Marney Walerius. Thank you for everything, Simone.

And thanks to you, brave soul who's read this far! We really appreciate all the kind thoughts and encouragement sent this way on our mission to preserve and promote vintage custom model equines through VCMEC.

'Til next, stay warm (we're sure tryin'!), take care, and we'll see you next month!

-Sparky C.

Diamond Derby, one of Kathleen Maestas' earliest works, was welcomed to the Vintage Custom Model Equine Center from Kathleen's own collection last month. Warm and safe on our second floor, the repainted Beswick got a brief look out at the ice and snow coating the horseshoe of forest around VCMEC's new digs.

Judge's Choice!

Here are judge Kathy Wells' picks for Judge's Choice titles! Enjoy!

Kathy writes, "Congratulations to all winners. Some very beautiful horses which have stood the test of time. The larger classes were murder. I tried to stay true to judging standards of that decade. Ardith said in addition I could pick a Judge's Choice and explain why I chose this horse. Indulge me, here's my first for purely personal reasons."

1960s/'70s BREED DIVISION:

PENNY ARCADE (BP)

Thoroughbred mare ~ CM by Beth Peart in 1975

"This group is all about preserving our history. I still cringe as several of my vintage horses were tossed in the trash after flood damage. I felt they were beyond repair. My redemption comes in the form of Penny Arcade, Beth Peart Weeks' fabulous TB mare from the 1970s (Man O'War model with molded halter removed, done as dapple-grey hunter).

"I recognized and rescued a battered Penny Arcade from someone's body box in the 1990s. Many years later, when Beth and I were reunited on FB, I gifted Penny back to Beth. It only seemed right. Beth gave Penny a much-needed facelift, and the rest is history."

1960s/'70s COLOR DIVISION: CLOVIS (CV)

Appaloosa gelding ~ CM by Bonnie Sumser in 1977

Kathy writes, "Yes, I am an Appaloosa fan. Clovis (Performance Appaloosa mold, bay with blanket), though not real flashy compared to some, has your basic blanket and foundation conformation. I love the old-style Appies to death. Then to discover it was created by my longtime friend Bonnie (Sumser) Elber! Not much of Bonnie's work out there."

1960s/'70s WORKMANSHIP DIVISION:

THE RAISULI (CH)

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Beth Peart & Nancy Strowger in 1977

Kathy writes, "This show was full of surprises. I noted several collaborations with artists teaming up to create a really one-of-a-kind horse. *The Raisuli is just one such piece. A rose grey PAS, remake by Beth Peart Weeks and repainted by the one and only Nancy Strowger. He has stood the test of time and is a classic for all ages. He may have started a trend for the non-hair molded manes and tails."

1980s BREED DIVISION: LADY LOVE (LoB)

[pictured at top of next page]

Appaloosa mare ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the 1980s

Kathy writes, "The aptly named Lady Love sure caught my attention. Who doesn't

Flocked w/Haired or Other Non-Flocked Mane/Tail (3): 1-Jefferson (CV), 2-TS Miami Dan (MP), 3-TS Rosalee (MP)

Remade & Flocked w/Haired or Other Non-Flocked Mane/Tail (5): 1-TS Iama Sunstorm (MP), 2-Walter (SSu), 3-TS Cenozoic Morning Glory (MP), 4-Joshua (SSu), 5-Kevin (SSu)

Any Other CM Not Listed (18): 1-Tetra-sina (KW), 2-Get Your Groove On (JC), 3-Autumn Gold (CS), 4-Dream All Day (AI), 5-Rheinholt (SSu), 6-Chica (JW), 7-Elite Colors (CV), 8-Cloud 9 (JW), 9-Ima Jetalino (ShR), 10-Beakman (SSu), HM-Jewels (HC)

love the Lady Phase mold? Top her off with her head turned slightly to the left. A gorgeous chestnut body with a large no spot blanket. What a lovely Appaloosa Lois has. Lady is one of Laura Hornick Behning's early works. Laura is well known for her Morgans, Lady shows that she knows her way around other breeds as well. Lois, when you get tired of this beauty, she would look smashing in my TBBT parade group. I won't hold my breath."

1980s COLOR DIVISION:

MY SPUTNIK BABY (CV)

Welara mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich & Elizabeth Bouras in 1987

Kathy writes, "A lovely golden palomino collaboration piece between Julie Froelich and Elizabeth Bouras. CM Swaps with head lowered, lovely newly minted palomino color with lots of chrome. Full hair mane/tail. As a Welara mare you can just picture her under tack. Yum!"

1980s WORKMANSHIP DIVISION:

DANCING RAIN (AC)

Appaloosa foal ~ CM by Alice McIntyre in the 1980s

Kathy writes, "The aptly named tri color Appaloosa foal precariously standing on one hind leg. His other three legs swirling through the air with glee. The paint is very rough, but there is just something about this piece. It almost looks like his tongue is hanging out."

"OMG it's a Stablemate! My photo is bigger than it. Creator Alice McIntyre, my hat's off to you! I think this fellow captures the spirit of remaking that keeps us going."

1990s BREED DIVISION:

TS RAMOTH OF RIELL (MP)

Klingon Warhorz mare ~ CM by Marie Phillips in 1993

Kathy writes, "The '90s sure brought out our creativity. TS Ramoth of Riel, a Klingon Warhorz, popped right out. Yes, you read right, a Klingon War Horse from the fantasy class. While this gal did not win her class, her devil's horns and extra feathering sure caught my attention. The first time I spotted her I broke out laughing. A much needed break from judging. The look on this gal's face is priceless. Well done!"

1990s COLOR DIVISION:

IMA ROCK-A-TEER (CM)

Appaloosa gelding ~ CM by Lisa Rivera in 1993

Kathy writes, "Chestnut blanket Appaloosa by Lisa Rivera on a Lady Phase. With so many beautiful horses I could have picked a favorite in each color. Being a lifelong Appaloosa fan, I'd love to own a REAL Appaloosa like this fellow. Gorgeous color and pattern."

1990s WORKMANSHIP DIV.:

RHUBARB BABE (AC)

Mule molly ~ CM by Diane Capwell in 1992

Kathy writes, "Molly Mule by Diane Capwell. Info says it was the QH Yearling CM. If so wowzah, as it looks more John Henry, if in pose only. Very nice!"

"For anyone thinking of hosting this show I urge you to do it. I was hesitant, but Ardith was persistent. I'm glad she was."

"The format is set up well. It is obvious much thought went into this. I am not real computer savvy, but I figured this out. Most of my judging has been done at live shows so I knew how to find entries in a large group. Having a touch screen helped when fingers were tired from typing and clicking."

"I did the largest classes in heats. Each heat got smaller. Bonus points and tie breakers for: originality, use of a less popular model, difficulty factor."

"Yes, the show is time consuming, but I did it in segments. It was great fun watching our model hobby's history unfold. I enjoyed seeing artists that I had previously only heard of. A real treat. Thank you for letting me see your lovely models and saving our history. Sincerely yours, Kathy Wells"

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

THE RAISULI

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Beth Peart & Nancy Strowger in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Colleen Headley writes, "The Raisuli was pretty new to Ava Maureen Durbin's Rebel Stables when I joined her club, MARA, in 1978. His stallion ad for that year, picture inked by Nancy Strowger, portended of things to come in the group. Remake by Beth Peart, repaint and soft thread mane/tail by Nancy, he looked tough and proud but he is an Arabian after all and loved by his people.

"He frustrated Ava no end when trying to get a good color halter photo, or when getting performance photos back saw that he had spit his bit and was only good as a reference photo.

"Now with Ava having passed almost 5 years ago, he is with me and I think every day he shakes his forelock and reminds me of what he says he deserves in this world. I miss you, Ava....."

KANDU KOHO

Quarab stallion ~ CM by Beth Peart & Nancy Strowger in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton shared the tale of her beloved "foxy grandpa" in the Summer 2021 issue's Victory Lap. Check it out in our free online archive of back issues at <http://www.vicmec.org/vicmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html>!

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Hackney Horse gelding ~ CM by Beth Peart in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Beth Peart writes, "Well, how cool is that? The 'Boy' has slowed down in his old age, but he isn't done yet, assuming we get this viral mess beat down. He's coming up on his 45th birthday. Up here in Canada, the Pandemic has meant no live shows since the fall of 2019, and so far, there are none firmly planned in the future, so he hasn't got out much.

"I'm always so proud when he does well, virtually, or in real life. I was 18 when I made him, and he debuted live at Marney Walerius's Congress in 1977. Anyone who is new to the VCMEC shows might like to know that he's a RR EI Pastor, and prior to being mounted on his base he balanced perfectly on two legs. Somewhere there is a picture of him in light harness at Congress.

"I had a good friend who was into models as well as real horses, and would come to model shows with me, and real horse shows as my groom. We got into the fun habit of watching Hackney classes at the larger shows and trying to pick the winners. He was a by-product of that. I thought I had only done two trotting Hackneys back when, but apparently there were more. I only know where one is now. I wish I had kept better track of what I made!

"Anyway, thanks again to those who really appreciate him. It always makes my day."

AL DHAHAB AL'ASWAD

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig writes, "The moment I saw this guy, I was stunned by his beauty! I still can't believe he sits on my shelves, I am so honored to caretake him! And for him to do so well in the show just tickles me to no end! He's timeless quality and a delight every day!"

JAMIL MHURATT

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Breed, Overall Champion Color, and Overall Champion Workmanship

Jamil Mhuratt is the sixth Triple Crown winner in the six-year history of the VCMEC Online World Championship series, taking the Overall Breed, Color, and Workmanship championships in the same leg! Congratulations!

MON'NAFA RANI

Arabian mare ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Sent by way of Cheryl Ridge, Mon'Nafa Rani wrote, "My brother Jamil Mhuratt and I are holding the fort at Cherenae Stables downunder in Melbourne Australia while our custodian Cheryl is away having some respite. Life has not always been easy for her living in the world's most locked down city.

"We saw her tears of joy when she found out the BOTH of us would feature in Victory Lap! There is no doubt about the love and pride she has for us, and the gratitude she has towards the judges, admirers and our creator, Sarah M-B.

"We encourage vintage model enthusiasts to check out previous issues of VCMEC Model Horse Re-View. We have had the honor of appearing in several Victory Laps that tell our backstory (Spring 2021, Winter 2020, Winter 2019, Autumn 2019, Spring 2018, Winter 2017, Autumn 2017). Thankyou and Happy New Year! ~ Mon'Nafa Rani"

RUSTLER RIDGE

Paint stallion ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Congratulations to Regine Nikolaidis and this colorful, charismatic fellow!

PENNY DREADFUL

American Modern Shetland mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1987

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton wrote, "I'm such a sucker for a big trot--so the moment I saw this remade Little Bit in one of Julie's production auctions, it was instant love! Was lucky to land her. Don't recall what her name originally was, but when I lifted her from the shipping box, 'Penny Dreadful' suggested itself. Was so tickled when Julie commented that her new name was perfect for her!

"Penny and I had a lot of fun together, but in a dental emergency, I tearfully parted with her. What a thrill it was almost 20 years later when Liz Bouras wrote out of the blue, 'I have Penny Dreadful but think she belongs back with you...!' I leaped at the chance to buy Penny back (thank you again, Liz!), and am so happy to be making up for lost time with her in VCMEC!"

LE COMTE DE MONTE CRISTO

Belgian Stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Le Comte De Monte Cristo is a drastic CM Breyer Clydesdale mare previously owned by Robin Clark under his original name of Cinnabar's Conquest, and she acquired him directly from Lisa Shepard. I was captivated by his deeply shaded copper red chestnut coat. He did very well in Robin's showstring, and has been doing well in mine. I see his career under his new name is quite successful.

"He is named after a real Belgian from the turn of the 19th century and is an ancestor of Congolaise, a famous Belgian stallion. His name translates from French to the English 'The Count of Monte Cristo,' the book by Alexandre Dumas. I was always taken with that story. So pleased other folks like him too!"

R. POCO LEO CHEX

Quarter Horse stallion ~ CM by Elaine Lindelef in 1994

1990s Overall Champion Color

Sophie Nordstrom writes, "I saw a photo online of R. Poco Leo Chex over a decade ago and immediately fell in love! I had no idea of who owned him or who made him, I just knew that I loved him! I actually saved that photo and got back to it many many MANY times wishing he was mine.

"Little did I know that in December 2016 or if it was January 2017, he would end up for sale in one of the vintage groups on Facebook. I was at work but I just HAD to put in an offer. And a few days later, his owner in Germany got back to me and told me he was mine. I was literally over the moon! A couple of weeks later he was in my care and he will never EVER leave.

"Leo is one of my top 3 models that I own that I love most. Sometimes I just pick him up and put him beside me when I do something else, just so I can look at him."

JEMEZ ANTIGUA

Quarter Horse gelding ~ CM by Lynn Fraley in 1993

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Shannon Rodgers writes, "Thank you! Antigua is a ~1993 Lynn Fraley creation as a dun Quarter Horse from Lady Phase with dropped head and many details... large, soft, beautiful eye, whisker bumps and detailed shod hooves, and an immaculate hair job.

"He was purchased in 2000 from collector Dara West via online auction and was one of my first 'major' show models at a time when I was doing the halter and performance overalls (with several standing models!) and has done consistently well against more current customs over time.

"He looks like the type of gelding I'd love to have in my backyard, kind and gentle. Lynn has a great artistic eye and flair for character and details, and this guy combines dilute color with a favorite mold. I feel lucky to have a Fraley CM in my vintage herd and still admire this caliber of craftsmanship years later.

"I appreciate all of the curators guarding our lovely vintage pieces as well as the judges appreciating their beauty and history!"

NIATROSS

Standardbred stallion ~ CM by Lisa Rivera in 1993

1990s Overall Res. Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, ""As a kid I idolized Niatross, the greatest Standardbred that ever lived, and was thrilled years later when Lisa Rivera (now Shepard) accepted the commission to create a portrait model of him.

"Rather than start with a Breyer Pacer or other Traditional sport-type model, she made something even more unique by customizing a Classic Kelso!

"Making this model all the more dear to me is the fact that his tail later gained some hair from the mane of the real Niatross, thanks to the kindness of Niatross' handlers when the champion came out of retirement to greet fans--including me!--at The Red Mile in Lexington in 1996."

MARS FLASH

Paint stallion ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Res. Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Doin' his daddy Naoto Nisei proud! It was years ago but I can still feel the excitement of being in time to get this CM Breyer Adios on one of Carol Williams' sales lists! He was still in progress, so Carol let me choose his color and pattern.

"Carol wrote me with an update, mentioning that she'd first painted him all in Mars Violet to make sure the remaking was smooth. The 'Mars' part stuck in mind, and I wound up naming him after the sword weapon of an anime robot hero.

"Carol also mentioned that she'd decided to try something different, replacing his head with a ceramic head she cast from what would later become her RRQH1 sculpture! (Mars Flash is one of two re-makes she did this with; the other was a Stud Spider CM as a blue roan overo named Blue Jack Rio. Although I let Blue Jack's current owner know his origin and the fragility that goes with it, she still claims he's a customized Stone ISH. Ah well, just don't knock him over, hon.)

"I was out of the hobby for a good decade after moving to Japan in 2000, and when I got back in, dun and buckskin overo custom horses kept finding their way to me. It was as though Mars Flash had been 'busy' in the meantime, getting a next generation ready to greet me!

"I felt almost like Rip Van Winkle, waking up to find that Naoto Nisei's best son (Mars Flash was fittingly destined to be Naoto Nisei's best, since he doesn't much resemble his daddy ;^)) was already carrying on as a fine sire."

GOLDEN MALICIOUS

Quarter Horse mare ~ CM by Sarah King in 1991

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig writes, "I am absolutely smitten by this mare and to know she's done so well in the show is really, well...it's pretty awesome! She's easy to fall in love with, isn't she? GOR-GEOUS! Thank you so much!"
