

DAVID DALTON — FOR THE MACOMB DAILY

Jake Budnick of Royal Oak took part in the annual ride.

Riders show they CARE at PATH event

Cyclists gathered at Lake St. Clair Metropark in Harrison Township Sunday morning to show their support for Fraser-based CARE of Southeastern Michigan at the 3rd annual Bike PATH.

Riders had their choice of a 2-mile trek around the park, a 10-mile ride from the park to Crocker Boulevard and back, a 25-mile jaunt to Freedom Hill in Sterling Heights or for those with added endurance, a 60-mile ride to and from Belle Isle in Detroit.

The event was headed up by a group of honorary ride leaders that included Sen. Debbie Stabenow, U.S. Reps. Sander Levin and Candice Miller, state Reps. Anthony Forlini and Marilyn Lane., Macomb County Executive Mark Hackel, Sheriff Tony Wickersham, Prosecutor Eric Smith, WXYZ-TV (Channel 7) sports anchor Justin Rose and former Detroit Lion Tim “Kenny” Walton.

Some riders were all smiles Sunday morning at the annual benefit.

Logan and Eric Detweiler of Flint at the start of the 3rd annual Bike PATH.