

Johnson City Press

Serving Eastern Tennessee since 1943

Slices of Heaven in Founders Park

GARY B. GRAY • AUG 22, 2016 AT 2:01 PM

ggray@johnsoncitypress.com

Craig Gray puts the finishing touches on "Slices of Heaven" Monday at Founders Park off Sevier Street. The Key West, Fla., sculptor moved his "Granite Gator" to Maryland and was asked by the Johnson City Public Art Committee to replace it with this bright, pressure-treated plywood, metal lathe and stucco creation. The two-year replacement cycle of public art returns next spring. Gray is getting $1,000 to display the piece for one year