The Sacraments and the Last Things

The “sacraments are part of the Church’s pilgrimage through history towards the full manifestation of the victory of the risen Christ.” Moreover, “especially in the liturgy of the Eucharist, they give us a real foretaste of the eschatological fulfillment for which every human being and all creation are destined.” By the grace they impart, the sacraments guide us “toward our final goal. That goal is Christ himself, the Lord who conquered sin and death, and who makes himself present to us in a special way in” the celebration of Holy Mass. “Even though we remain ‘aliens and exiles’ in this world (1 Pet 2:11), through faith we already share in the fullness of risen life” and by our participation in the sacraments and in the life of the Church, Christ the Lord gathers together the scattered People of God from “from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues” (Rev 7:9) and from the highways and byways of life (Lk 14:12-24), to sit with him at “the final banquet foretold by the prophets (cf. Is 25:6-9) and described in the New Testament as ‘the marriage feast of the Lamb’ (Rev 19:7-9).”
