Data Protection Policy

The information you provide will be held and used by The Prostate Project Charity for the purposes of administering its charitable activities. These activities include fundraising, awareness raising, maintaining contact with our supporters through the sending of News items about the charity and the work it is supporting and the keeping of records of donations and any related Gift Aid declarations.

Your data will be held securely and will be accessible only to Trustees or Supporters who have explicitly agreed to use it only for the purposes listed above. Your data will not be passed to any third party. You can ask to be removed from our email and address contact list at any time by sending a request to:
